relinquished to Frank Jacobs, and then in 1920 Yancy Horton appears as an owner of land in the quarter section. These are known to be black landowner families, who are also associated with several other cemeteries on the arsenal. Examples of their census records of the time are given below: