About the Author

Fred Bryan Simpson was born in Birmingham, Alabama, but was educated by Montevallo Public Schools until joining the United States Air Force. During the Korean Conflict, he served in the Far East Office of Special Investigations. He financed his college education at Samford University by working as a Birmingham Police Officer. While at Vanderbilt Law School in Nashville, Tennessee, he paid his expenses working as a private investigator. He was District Attorney of Huntsville-Madison County during the decade of the seventies. He is now in private practice, specializing in murder cases.

Fred has been compiling information on murder cases in Madison County for over twenty-five years, and hopes to find time to publish more about these historical events. Interested in genealogy since a boy, he has compiled and plans to publish information about his family. Fred and his wife, the former Peggy Holloway, have been married for forty years and have three children: Bryan Simpson, Derek Simpson and Cindy Simpson Howard. They have also been blessed with four grandchildren. Besides writing, Fred enjoys his family, the law, painting portraits, and historical research.
