TVGS MEETING, July 1968

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Tennessee Valley Genealogical Society was held July 11 at the Huntsville Public Library, with the president, A. E. Terry presiding. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr. introduced as speaker of the evening Dr. Frances Roberts, professor of history and chairman of the Department of History at the University of Alabama. Dr. Roberts received her BS degree from Livingston College, a masters degree and Phd. from the University of Alabama; she taught history in the public schools of Huntsville until she joined the staff of the University of Alabama in 1952. At present, Dr. Roberts is president of the Alabama Historical Association, member of the board of the Buritt Museum, member of the board of the Twickenham Historical Preservation Association, and consultant for the Madison County Court House.

In her speech, "Research in Mississippi Territorial Papers at the Mississippi Department of Archives and History," Dr. Roberts stated that she began that particular search to determine just how Madison County was created, and how it developed politically, socially, and economically over a period of sixty years. She began with Carter's "Territorial Papers of Mississippi" (Volume 13 which pertains to Madison County, now Alabama) which lead ultimately to the papers that dealt with Alabama Territory. The group was advised that some of this material is on microfilm in Montgomery but that to really delve into all aspects of Madison County development, one should go to Jackson, Mississippi, because so much information can be had from searching the official documents and finding additional documents other than those for which you were searching.

Dr. Roberts stressed two points. There is a science to research. "You must map out a plan." She suggested that a searcher start with available sources; consider footnotes, go to the original point where documents are stored; move to the place where clues tell you to go; and when you take notes, "put down the source. There is an art to research. You must know how to put the bits and peices together." Illustrating that there can be five or six people living in the same place, at the same time, with the same names and not be related at all, she gave several specifics in the early history of this county. Dr. Roberts stated that tax records can substantiate time lines and that a searcher must know how to evaluate what he finds and be able to prove himself wrong as well as right!

In conclusion, Dr. Roberts informed the Society that Belle and Howe, Ann Arbor, Michigan, is microfilming old newspapers and old books at a very reasonable price and that catalogs may be received upon request to Belle and Howe.

During the business meeting, officers for the coming year were elected. The next meeting of TVGS will be September 12.

MARRIAGE BOOK TWO

MADISON COUNTY, ALABAMA

The following is a copy of the records contained in Madison County, Alabama Marriage Book Two as now deposited in the Court House Record Room, Huntsville, Alabama.

It is generally agreed that Marriage Book Two is a somewhat inaccurate copy of the original which is lost. It is quite obvious that many pages are missing and that names are inaccurate since the same name is often spelled three different ways on one page. This interpretation of the script was compared with the old index downstairs (D) in the History Room, itself probably a copy and incomplete. Another comparison was made with the upstairs index (U) found in the Record Room. Only when the indexes varied were notations made. Marriages were omitted in both indexes. Minor differences in spelling of first names were not noted. In some cases, the same marriages seemed to be recorded again in Marriage Book Three. These duplications are noted for the convenience of anyone desiring to make further comparisons.

Mrs. Howard Jones, an experienced Alabama genealogist wrote shortly before her death a few notations about this marriage book (K.J.). She wrote, "The minister so often mentioned as T. M. Baker is the Rev. Zadok W. Baker, a Baptist preacher."

Marriage bonds were signed by Henry Minor, R. O. C., Wm. H. Winston, R. O. C., or Thomas Brandon, C. C. C.

Every variation of spelling for bride's, groom's, and bonds-men's names is included in the index of this volume.

Prepared by Mrs. Roy J. Cochran, 1967-1968, Huntsville, Alabama

L. = Licensed
S. = Soleminized
D. = Downstairs index (The old one in the history room.)
U. = Upstairs index (1809-1920 index used in the record room.)

TVGS MEETING, September 1968

The marking of all family photographs with names and dates for posterity was advised at this TVGS meeting. Mr. W.H. Jenkins of Decatur, Alabama told the group that he found an old family album recently, but was unable to identify the relatives since the photos were not marked.

Mr. Jenkins suggested that beginners in genealogy begin investigation in the immediate family, later contacting eldest living relatives. He said the next step is to check public records such as wills, deed, censuses and tax lists. Cemeteries can then be inspected. As a genealogist progresses in a search for data, maps become quite useful and he recommended the elaborate collection in the map room of the Birmingham public library.

Mr. Jenkins belongs to the Alabama Historical Society and the North Alabama Genealogical Society, of which he is president.

TVGS MEETING, November 1968

Dr. L. Wayne Johnson spoke on "The Use of Maps in Genealogy" at the November meeting of TVGS. Dr. Johnson was born in Winfield, Kansas, received his PhD at Princeton University. Prior to his retirement, he was a professor and head of the mathematics department at Oklahoma State. At his retirement he accepted an appointment as professor of mathematics at the University of Alabama in Huntsville. He is a member of the Oklahoma Genealogical Society, the Oklahoma and Kansas Historical Society and TVGS.

Dr. Johnson gave an interesting talk on maps in genealogy. He described many commonly available sources of maps such as maps at gasoline stations, State Highway Department maps and the U. S. Geological maps. The later maps show information useful to genealogists such as churches, cemeteries, communities, and even residences. Some maps are free and those that aren't are very inexpensive.

The grid system by which unsettled lands were surveyed and divided into townships were described. He pointed out that topographical maps which show geographical features such as streams, hills and valleys are frequently used in locating a parcel of land described in some ancestors will or deed. Older maps which can be found in libraries sometimes show early immigrant trails west and provide many clues in looking for traces of migrating families. Tract books which show the original grantees of all Alabama lands by counties are available in each county Probate Judge's office. These tract books are most helpful in determining when the first ancestor came into the state.

Dr. Johnson's enthusiasm for maps was quite infectious.

NEW OFFICERS: Mrs. Cecil Fain and Mrs. William L. Crump, Sr. have been elected to the Board of Directors. Mrs. James T. Powell is recording secretary upon resignation of Mrs. Shenk.

MADISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI TERRITORY TAX LISTS
1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1815

This series was discontinued after Part IV when microfilm of the original records became available, thus permitting a more detailed study. The list was republished in its entirety in Valley Leaves, Vol. 4, #4, June 1970.

The Madison County, Mississippi Territory Tax Lists are located in the Department of Archives and History in Jackson, Mississippi. Dr. Frances Roberts of Huntsville, Alabama has allowed the Tennessee Valley Genealogical Society to use her copy of these lists in making the following compilation. Mrs. F. Edward Williams of Huntsville alphabetized all of the lists and they are presented here as a guide in locating the early residents of Madison County, Alabama. It is suggested that anyone desiring absolute authority and more information consult the original records in Mississippi. The 1810 Tax List has been compared with similar lists made by Mr. Richard S. Lackey of Forest, Mississippi and the late Mrs. Howard C. Jones, Sr. of Huntsville Alabama.

An "X" indicates that the person paid tax on property for that year. The number of "X's" indicates the number of returns made in that name for the year, either the same person or two men with the same name. As is common in most old records, there is a variation in spelling of names. There were no tax returns in 1814.

Obituary.

Died near Hatton, Ala. on April 5, 1896 Bro. Jeptha West at the advanced age of nearly 93 years. He was born July 25, 1803.
Bro. West came to Ala. from Ga. He joined the Missionary Baptist Church at Town Creek in the year 1834 or 35 and was elected Deacon of said Church. He lived so far as I know a consistent member of the Church. He was considered by those who know him as one of the most loyal and honorable citizens of this country. As the sun shot forth its brilliant rays I looked through the glass of the beautiful coffin and taking into consideration his age, he was the finest specimen of humanity that my eyes ever beheld. His wife has been dead 38 years. There were born unto them 7 children. The girls all married good farmers that rank among the best citizens of Lawrence Co. I will give their names: M. A. Gray, Jonathan Sandlin, W. H. Young, W. R.
Turner and James Ponder. They had 2 sons, W. B. West was a Captain in the Confederate Army, J. R. West was a physician.
Our brother has gone to the bright clime above where all is joy, peace and love.

MISS MARTHA LOU HOUSTON'S COLLECTION

Miss Martha Lou Houston was born in Lee County, Alabama in 1873. She graduated from Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville, Georgia and began teaching. Her B. S. degree was earned at the University of Chicago during summers between school terms. When she retired from teaching after forty-three years of service, she went to Washington, D. C. to work three weeks in Continental Hall on the Registrar General's staff and continued there for seventeen years. She began searching records in court houses, cemeteries and Bible records on her own family in 1898 and from this began to help friends and others. She published six books of records beginning with the Reprint of the Land Lottery of 1827 (Ga.). Others were Index of South Carolina Wills, 600 Revolutionary Soldiers and Widows of Soldiers Living in Georgia in 1827-29, Land Lottery List Oglethorpe County, Ga., 1804 and Hancock County, Ga., 1806, Marriages of Hancock County, Ga. 1806 to 1850, Index of Madison County Wills, 1808-1870 (Ala.).

Miss Houston's papers have been in the possession of her niece, Mrs. Pickens Gates of Huntsville, with whom she lived prior to her death. In an effort to distribute them, Mrs. Gates has asked Mrs. W. F. Sparkman, a TVGS member, to arrange them for sale at a nominal cost. If you wish to purchase any of the items listed, send cost plus 40¢ postage with the name of the item to Mrs. W. F. Sparkman, 402 White St., Huntsville, Ala. 35801. Valley Leaves will not be responsible for correspondence or satisfaction regarding the material which is offered.

NOTICE!

It has come to our attention that the Herrin(g) Cemetery, Morgan Co., Ala., which was published in the September 1968 issue of Valley Leaves, was a partial listing. Please make this notation in your copy of Vol. 3, No. 1. There are, I understand, a large number of tombstones not included in this list. Perhaps the partial inventory will aid in locating other graves there. This cemetery is one of a number of cemeteries compiled by Mr. James O. Vassar of Decatur, Ala. Mr. Vassar is now deceased, and rather than exclude his work, we will note that any of his cemeteries may be incomplete.

TVGS MEETING, JANUARY 23, 1969

The Huntsville Public Library. The regular bi-monthly meeting date was changed to the fourth Thursday of the month. Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr. announced that on a trip to the Department of Archives and History in Montgomery, Alabama she had located the following original Madison County records on deposit in the newspaper room: Superior Court Appearance Docket, 1811-1816, Orphans Court Minutes 1810-1819, Superior Court of Law and Equity Minutes 1810-1812, and 1811-1819 (two books), and an untitled book with the first thirty-four pages missing probably a Register of Estate Settlements 1818-1819.

Mrs. Robert L. DeYoung, Sr., speaker, shared with the group her knowledge of the records in the Madison County Court House. Books available from the year 1809 to the present are Marriages, Estates, Orphans Court Records (until 1850 when Probate Court Records begin), Deeds (containing wills and other material also), and Plat Books. Many other books and newspapers are available.

Mr. Wesley S. Thompson reviewed his book, The Free State of Winston, a history of Winston County, Ala. Winston County was unique in the fact that it seceded from the state of Alabama when Alabama seceded from the Union.

Members of the newly-formed North Alabama Genealogical Society of Decatur, Ala. presented their quarterly, Trails.

SOUTH CAROLINA-ALABAMA MIGRATION

The Huntsville News, 5 February 1969, page 4, Reader's Write:
"Editor, Huntsville News, Dear Sir:

Many of the early settlers of Alabama were natives of South Carolina; therefore, we have a common bond of interest. Such hearty emigrants as John Gayle, Andrew B. Moore, James E. Belser, Franklin W. Bowdon, and Dr. J. Marion Sims left their home state of South Carolina and migrated to Alabama where they made a significant contribution in the state's development.

In anticipation of South Carolina's three hundredth anniversary celebration in 1970, the Tricentennial Commission is currently gathering as much material as possible on significant family and group migrations in the 1800's. Your assistance, and that of your readers, would greatly benefit our tracing of migration patterns. We would like to know the names of those who left South Carolina, when and where they departed, and where they settled. Evidence of such interesting Carolinians who settled your area should be sent to: Research Department, South Carolina Tricentennial Commission, Box 1970, Columbia, South Carolina 29202.

We look forward to hearing from you in the near future and having you visit our three exposition centers in 1970. Thank you for your interest and cooperation.

Sincerely, (Miss) Nancy Vance Ashmore, Writer-Researcher."

CORRECTION, Valley Leaves, Volume I, Number 2, page 43:

During the second printing of this issue (mimeographed copies, the first printing was offset), the name of Benjamin Battle was omitted in the listing of the 1809 census of Madison County, Ala. His name should appear as number 24 on the list on this page following Thomas Battle and preceding Joseph Greenwood as follows:

Benjamin Battle, 0 males under 21, 2 males over 21,
1 female under 21, 2 females over 21, 0 slaves.

CORRECTION, Valley Leaves, Volume III, Number 2, pages 37 and 38:

Mr. Jackson R. Stell of Russellville, Alabama reports that he has found errors in the Jephtha West Bible Records in this issue. A check with our source agreed that errors had been made. Please correct this issue as follows (corrections underlined):

- entry 2: Eunice Missinah West (spelled with double "s" throughout)
- entry 10: Louisa Alabamaborn October 26, 1840.
- entry 14: Ann Eliza,born June 8, 1823.
- page 38, entry 1: William Bowen Westdied July 1, 1881.
- entry 2: Martha Frances Westborn Aug. 2, 1838.
- obituary: Died.....Jephtha West at the advanced age of 93 years.

Mr. Stell provided us with the following additional information:

Two graves, among many, in the Ferguson Cemetery, a few miles northwest of the Old Town Creek Baptist Church on the Russellville-Moulton Highway, Lawrence County, Alabama. (See page 90 of this issue.)

Jepthah West	Elizabeth, wife of J. West
born July 25, 1803	born November 2, 1799
died April 5, 1896	died January 8, 1858
married September 19, 1822

Elizabeth Ferguson, wife of Jephtha West was born in North Carolina. She was the daughter of Robert Ferguson who located in Greenville Co., S. C. about 1810, where he died leaving a will dated January 28, 1841, proved 23rd August 1850. In his will he names wife, Cassender, all land, stock, etc.; at her death estate to be equally divided among six children: Lucy Bruce, Polly (Mary) Bruce, Elizabeth West, Sally Few, Ann Graves, John Ferguson (to have $150 before equal distribution). Mentions son, Clement Ferguson (see will page 90 of this issue) having already been provided for and son-in-law, Hardin Bruce. It appears all of Robert's children except Sally Few and Lucy Bruce were in Lawrence Co., Ala by 1850--most there by 1840. Daughter Lucy was the wife of Hardin Bruce; they were in Greenville Couty, S.C. at the time of the will. Mary was the wife of Silas Bruce. Ann was the wife of Thomas Graves.

II. Austinville, Cardinal Street. These graves are now between two multiple apartments, Cardinal Apts. All of the streets in this sub-division are named for birds. A new swimming pool was dug across the North end of a portion of the burial plot. The construction foreman of the job related that no graves were encountered in digging the pool. The plans are to restore the burial plots, cover them with crushed stone, and enclose them with a fence for protection. Copied 9 November, 1965.

Richardson, Clerk of the County Court, be allowed out of the County Treasury, the sum of twenty-five dollars for extra services, including books furnished by him."

This Edward Richardson was Clerk of the County Court of Cotaco County in 1819. In the first minute book (pg.23) is the following entry, "Ordered by the Court that Edward Richardson, Clerk of the County Court, be allowed out of the County Treasury, the sum of twenty-five dollars for extra services, including books furnished by him."
On August 9, 1820 is found this entry, "Ordered by the Court, that Edward Richardson Esq., Clerk for the Superior Court for the County of Cotaco, be allowed the sum of eighty-nine dollars--"

Although it is rumored that these Crocketts were related to the Great Davy, this has not yet been established.
(Cotaco County was changed to Morgan County in 1821. Editor)

TVGS MEETING, MARCH 1969

Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr. presided at the regular TVGS meeting at the Huntsville Public Library. She announced that our contribution to Mrs. Jones' collection was received by the library and some of these books are now on the shelves.

It was announced that the GPA Index, in which Valley Leaves is included, is available for 1966 and 1967.

The membership expressed interest in publishing a special edition of Valley Leaves to commemorate Alabama's 150th anniversary celebration. Plans were made for its preparation.

Mrs. Jack Countess, who with her husband has written and published several family genealogies, gave tips on how to search and records deserving special attention. Mrs. Mary Shannon Harrington and Mrs. Lucile Fitts, visitors from California were introduced. Mrs. Harrington spoke briefly to the group.

TVGS MEETING, MAY 1969

TVGS president, Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr. presided at this meeting held at the Madison County Court House. Plans for the Valley Leaves special edition were discussed and material for future publication on Marshall County was exhibited.

Mr. A. Ezell Terry placed names in nomination for the two places on the Board of Directors which fall vacant in July.

Plans were presented for a joint celebration with The Huntsville Historical Society on the anniversary of the signing of the Alabama Constitution. It was decided that TVGS members will compile information on each man and endeavor to locate their descendants. (See Searchin; page 120 of this issue.)

Mr. Wesley S. Thompson, professor at John C. Calhoun Junior College and author of several books, the most recent of which was The Free State of Winston, gave the organization an inspiring talk on "Preserving Our Heritage." He emphasized the bond existing between genealogists and historians and stressed the value and motivation behind the preservation of our records and traditions.

THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

This committee presents to the membership the following names for consideration as members of the Board of Directors:

FAMILY HISTORY BY CHARLES STRONG WRITTEN BEFORE CIVIL WAR
(Written 1834)

Agis Nathan Strong was Born in 1744--Caty his wife Maidin name Katy Calaham Born 1754. This is the ages of your Greate Grand father & Mother my sons and thir deaths. Nathan Strong Dide 1823 his wife dide in 1828 this is your greate Grandparence by your Fathers side. Benjamin East who was your Grand Father by my Mother side was borne 1759 his wife Nancy East Maidin name was Prewit (Pruitt) Borne in 1760--Benjamin East Dide in--1809 Nancy East Dide in 1800----

Your Grand Fathers and Mothers by your Mother's side I shal not under take to tell thinges (their ages) becaus I do not now (know,) But I wille indever (endeavor) to show you their names so fair (far) as (I) can. Your grand Father by your Mothers side was Humphrey, your great Grand Mother by your mother side was a Blankingship, your Greate Grand Parrents on Both sides was decendance from Greate Britton and settle in Virginia before the revolution war and was all Honest and respectibe men as fair (far) as I can learn, and I prey the Lord that you may be so two. I shal now endeavor to show the ages of your Grandparrents and thir conduct in life-----

Your GrandFather and my Father, he is shortly departed this life, and I shal say all about him now as he is dead and the rest are all a live to day and try to give you as complete a history of him as I can-----

He was born in the year 1773 about he time of the Revolutionary war and was born of Pore parrentage and in a time of Greate Confution (confusion) in the United States and in quancequence of that, opportunity never favord him with an Education there fore he never was now (known) in Publick affairs But my sons he was of one of the greatest men that lived in his day he Marrid in his Twentyth fourth year of his life and an Honest sober and industrious home staying man all ways, study (steady) to his business, a good husband and a good master, a good neighbor, and my sons I have undertakin to write this book for your satisfaction when I am dead and gone. Therefore I will state the truths to you as near as I can as I wille condem my self in sore (so) doing. My Father I believe was the Honests and Virtous man I ever saw in my life. I personally node (knew) him for Twenty years and I wille tell you of a truth that I never saw any thing by him deshonest or unvirtous. He laid down Earley, got up earley, and attended to his own buisness. He had no buisness at evry publick place nor he wod (would) not go unless buisness call him thare. When in companey he had nothing to do with fighting and Quorling and gambling. He paid his debts when dew (due,) he never was sued (sued) unless it was threw a mistake he sud (sued) nor warrested (arrested) but few. He went no mans security. In fact he was nothing to do with law and yet he was a man that hil (held) his rights as sacred as anny man. He was in the late indian and british waw (war) and accted his par (part) as well as anny man.

My sons your Grandfather Strong was a man of the most stability I ever Saw, he was the same thing today and tomorrow and all ways. One thing he was not proud, yet he was jenteel. I must come to a close on this Subject though I am in hops (hopes) that if I shold not live to council with you my children that when you redde (read) this, and my far will (farewell) advise (advice) to you that you wille indever for the sake of my sake and of your Grand Father, to pay serious hed (heed) these things which I have in deavored to leave behind for your instruction as they are from your dearest friend in this life.

Your Grand Father left to his estate perfect satisfaction and I am the youngest Child. He had given them all equal justis and $7500.00 worth of land and one negro, hors (horse), cow and then left an estate worth Twenty one or two Thousand Dollars and Departed this life the 18 day of August about nine oclock in the night after a short an attact of siven days of Putride Bilious fever and lived about forty Eight years of his life in perfect health. He was borne in January the 15 1773

And so ends the History of man my sons though I have no dout (doubt) but he is happy in the Eturnal World where you and I must be and my Children we must be preperde for it or be forever lost.

Written by Charles Waite Strong, who was a son of George Strong. George Strong was born Jan. 15, 1773, Goochland Co., Va. and died Aug. 18, 1834, Madison Co., Ala.; married June 6, 1797 in Goochland Co., Va. to Mary (Polly) East who was born May 24, 1774, Goochland Co., Va. and died Feb. 18, 1842, Madison Co., Ala.

Charles W. Strong was born Aug. 11, 1804, Goochland Co., Va. and died Feb. 23, 1871, Madison Co., Ala.; married Oct. 10, 1828 in Madison Co., Ala. to Didama Allison Humphrey who was born July 2, 1806, Bedford Co., Va. and died Jan. 25, 1878, Madison Co., Ala.

Note: The original paper in the handwriting of Charles W. Strong was for many, many years in the possession of Miss Willie McClellan, a granddaughter of Charles Strong. Miss Willie lived alone and died in 1955 at an advanced age. Noone knows what happened to the original paper, but most likely it was inadvertently destroyed when Miss Willie's house was "cleaned out" after her death. Mr. Thompson R. Kelly, a great grandson of Charles Strong, made this typed copy from the original paper in 1950, "being very careful to copy it exactly as it was written," he said. To make this
