

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
The First Interview (1996) Learning about History “First Hand”	1
Archaeological Surveys	2
Why Not Ask Grandma	2
Is an Ethnographic Study Feasible?	3
The Army Wrote a Scope of Work	3
January 2005: The Staff Archaeologist Resumed Interviewing	4
Additional Research	9
Limitations of the Study	11
Presentation of the Information Gained from the Interviews	12
A WALK THROUGH POND BEAT	13
THE REVEREND MCKINLEY JONES INTERVIEWS AND RELATED RESEARCH	31
The Union Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church	31
The Union Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church School/ Union Hill School	34
The Store and the Lodge	39
Ownership of the Land	40
Inman Cemetery	43
The Family of the Reverend McKinley Jones	57
McKinley Jones: His Boyhood	63
Daily Life on the Farm	64
Social Interaction in the Pre-Arsenal Communities	66
POLLY WHITE ISAACS	68
The Family	68
Daily Life	68
THE JOHN HERTZLER FAMILY OF OHIO: ON PRE-ARSENAL LAND?	70
Evidence that the Barn and House were Located on RSA Land	72
DOROTHY HARRIS FOSTER	73
Location of the Property	73
The Family	73
Dorothy Harris Foster’s Mother’s Family	83