

remembered. These parcels were all south of the Farley-Triana Road. Furthermore, immediately to the south of Addie's Parcel D-172, Ernest Jacobs owned parcel D-193.

The pictures on the following pages will further acquaint the reader with Dock, Addie and Frank Jacobs. They were the photographs kept by Dock and Zera Jacobs and passed down to their son, Alva.

Dock Jacobs, World War I.