

LOCATION: Section 13-1S-1W. Center of E/2 NE/4.

Note: This cemetery was all but destroyed several months ago by neighborhood boys hunting rabbits, according to a near by resident. Cattle have now been let into the graveyard and have about finished the destruction the irresponsible boys began. I spent several hours here attempting to find missing parts to the many pieces of tombstones but was unsuccessful for the most part. It was like trying to fit together a giant jigsaw puzzle. Bear with me.

Note: The box tomb of Brancy Davie may be the only one of its kind in this county; the sides, ends and lid were of marble. Her inscription was carved on one of the ends and the lid was a masterpiece. In the center of the lid was carved an ornate shield in bas-relief and in the center of the shield were carved these words: "I am not dead, but only sleeping."

Note: Brancy Ann McDavid -M- Gabriel S. Davie January 24, 1837.
