D. W. V. - (?) (Note: This stone is weathered and the initials are indistinct, but it is believed to be the grave of Dicey Walker Vernon. The unmarked grave next to this one may be that of her third husband, James Vernon. These two graves are near the graves of William and Katherine (Wesson) Kelly.)

Note: In the corner of this cemetery and not far from the stones of William and Katherine (Wesson) Kelly, there is a large area with no tombstones. It is said that two infants and two unmarried daughters of William and Katherine Kelly are probably buried there. They would be (dates from Bible) Josiah Phillips Kelly, (1841-1841); Joshua Littleton Kelly (1844-1845); Emma Louise Kelly (1846-1874); and Nancy Rebecca Kelly (1852-1872).
