ACKNOWLEDGMENT

In the 1920's Pauline Jones Gandrud and the late Kathleen Paul Jones copied the inscriptions of many of the older tombstones in the county. Some of the cemeteries they copied have now been destroyed and Mrs. Gandrud has graciously consented to my use of their information on tombstones which are no longer in existence. Mrs. Gandrud is Alabama's most outstanding genealogist and I am indeed grateful for her cooperation in helping make this work more complete.

No historical or genealogical work can be completed by one person alone and such is the case with this book. My inspiration for this work came from Bessie King Russell, that grand lady of history whose kind word and encouragement has done so much to further local historical research.

A special note of thanks must go to Mrs. Richard H. Gilliam, Jr., for the many boosts she gave me along the way. Mrs. Gilliam was ever faithful in telling me of a cemetery she had heard of or in supplying me bits and pieces of information which, when put together, usually made a whole.

It is impossible to list, and individually thank, every land owner and farmer on whose land there is a cemetery but that doesn't make me any less appreciative for their help and cooperation. I am deeply grateful to people like Mrs. Alvie L. Sublett, Robert Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Upton who went out of their way to help and whose help was invaluable.

My hat is off to the men of Redstone Arsenal who did so much to make that particular chapter possible. Mr. M. R. Stevens of the Public Relations office spent a great deal of time and effort obtaining as much information as possible on the cemeteries located there prior to my visit which made my work a lot easier. Mr. William Bass was another gentleman who was a tremendous help in locating out-of-the-way cemeteries for me. Without his help and expert guidance I would not have been able to find some of the old graveyards.

My deepest appreciation is extended to Mr. James N. Weldon of the Post Engineers office for his assistance in locating some of the cemeteries I had little hope of ever finding. Family descendants can rest assured that if they have ancestors buried on Redstone Arsenal and Mr. Weldon knows where they are buried the cemetery will be well cared for.

INTRODUCTION

A wholehearted attempt has been made to locate every cemetery, no matter how small, obscure or seemingly insignificant, in the west half of Madison County. To my knowledge, the only cemetery not copied is the Memory Garden and because it is so new I've chosen to leave it for the next generation.

A concentrated effort has been made to include every tombstone of burials prior to January 1, 1970. There are a few 1970 burials included but they are by no means a complete record.

It would be foolish to assume this work to be a complete record of every person buried in this part of the county from the time of the first pioneers. In the nearly three years it has taken to complete this work I've seen many tombstones destroyed by animals, elements and people. If this could happen in just three years I hate to think of the number that has been destroyed in the last hundred.

At the time of the pioneer settlement of our county it was impossible to observe many of the amenities of more settled regions. Because of this I can not help but feel only a very small percentage of our pioneers had tombstones. Many of the early graves are marked with unlettered fieldstone or slate markers of which the inscriptions have weathered away long ago. I have no way of knowing whose graves they mark, therefore, many names will be missing from this book.

An attempt has been made to correlate some of the cemetery records with the old Madison County marriage records and the 1850 Census. In some instances correlation has been made with the first land acquisitions of 1809 and the 1830 Census. The 1850 Census has been used primarily as it was the first census to list the names of household members, their ages, place of birth and property evaluation.

Since this work will be primarily used as a genealogical source book and in order to cut down the size of the book without destroying its information content, the advisability of listing the Negro cemeteries in a separate work seemed prudent.

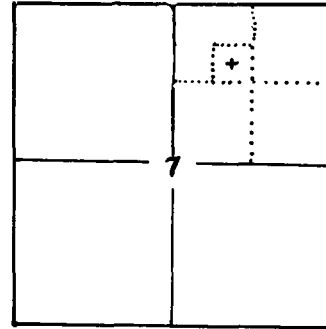

In the older inscriptions the term "consort" is often found. It generally referred to a woman who preceded her husband in death, however, in some instances it is applied to a man who left a widow.

In order to assist the reader in locating the cemeteries listed in this work the legal descriptions have been given rather than directions on how to get to each one. The legal description will mean as much in a hundred years as it does now while the roads and their names may change and the land owners will most assuredly change.

For instance, Sec. 7-2S-2W would mean Section 7, Township 2 South and Range 2 West. All Alabama townships are "South". If a township is "West" you will know automatically it refers to land lying west of Meridian Street as that is the dividing line between the east and west ranges. All cemeteries in this book are in the west ranges. Volume II will consist of cemeteries in the other half of the county, or the east ranges.

For example, if a location is listed as SE NW NE of Sec. 7, you should first locate the NE quarter of the entire section; then locate the NW quarter of the NE quarter and last you go to the center of the SE quarter of the NW quarter. In reading a location description always read it backwards. When a description shows the S/2 or the NE/4, for instance, this means the south half or the northeast quarter of the section.

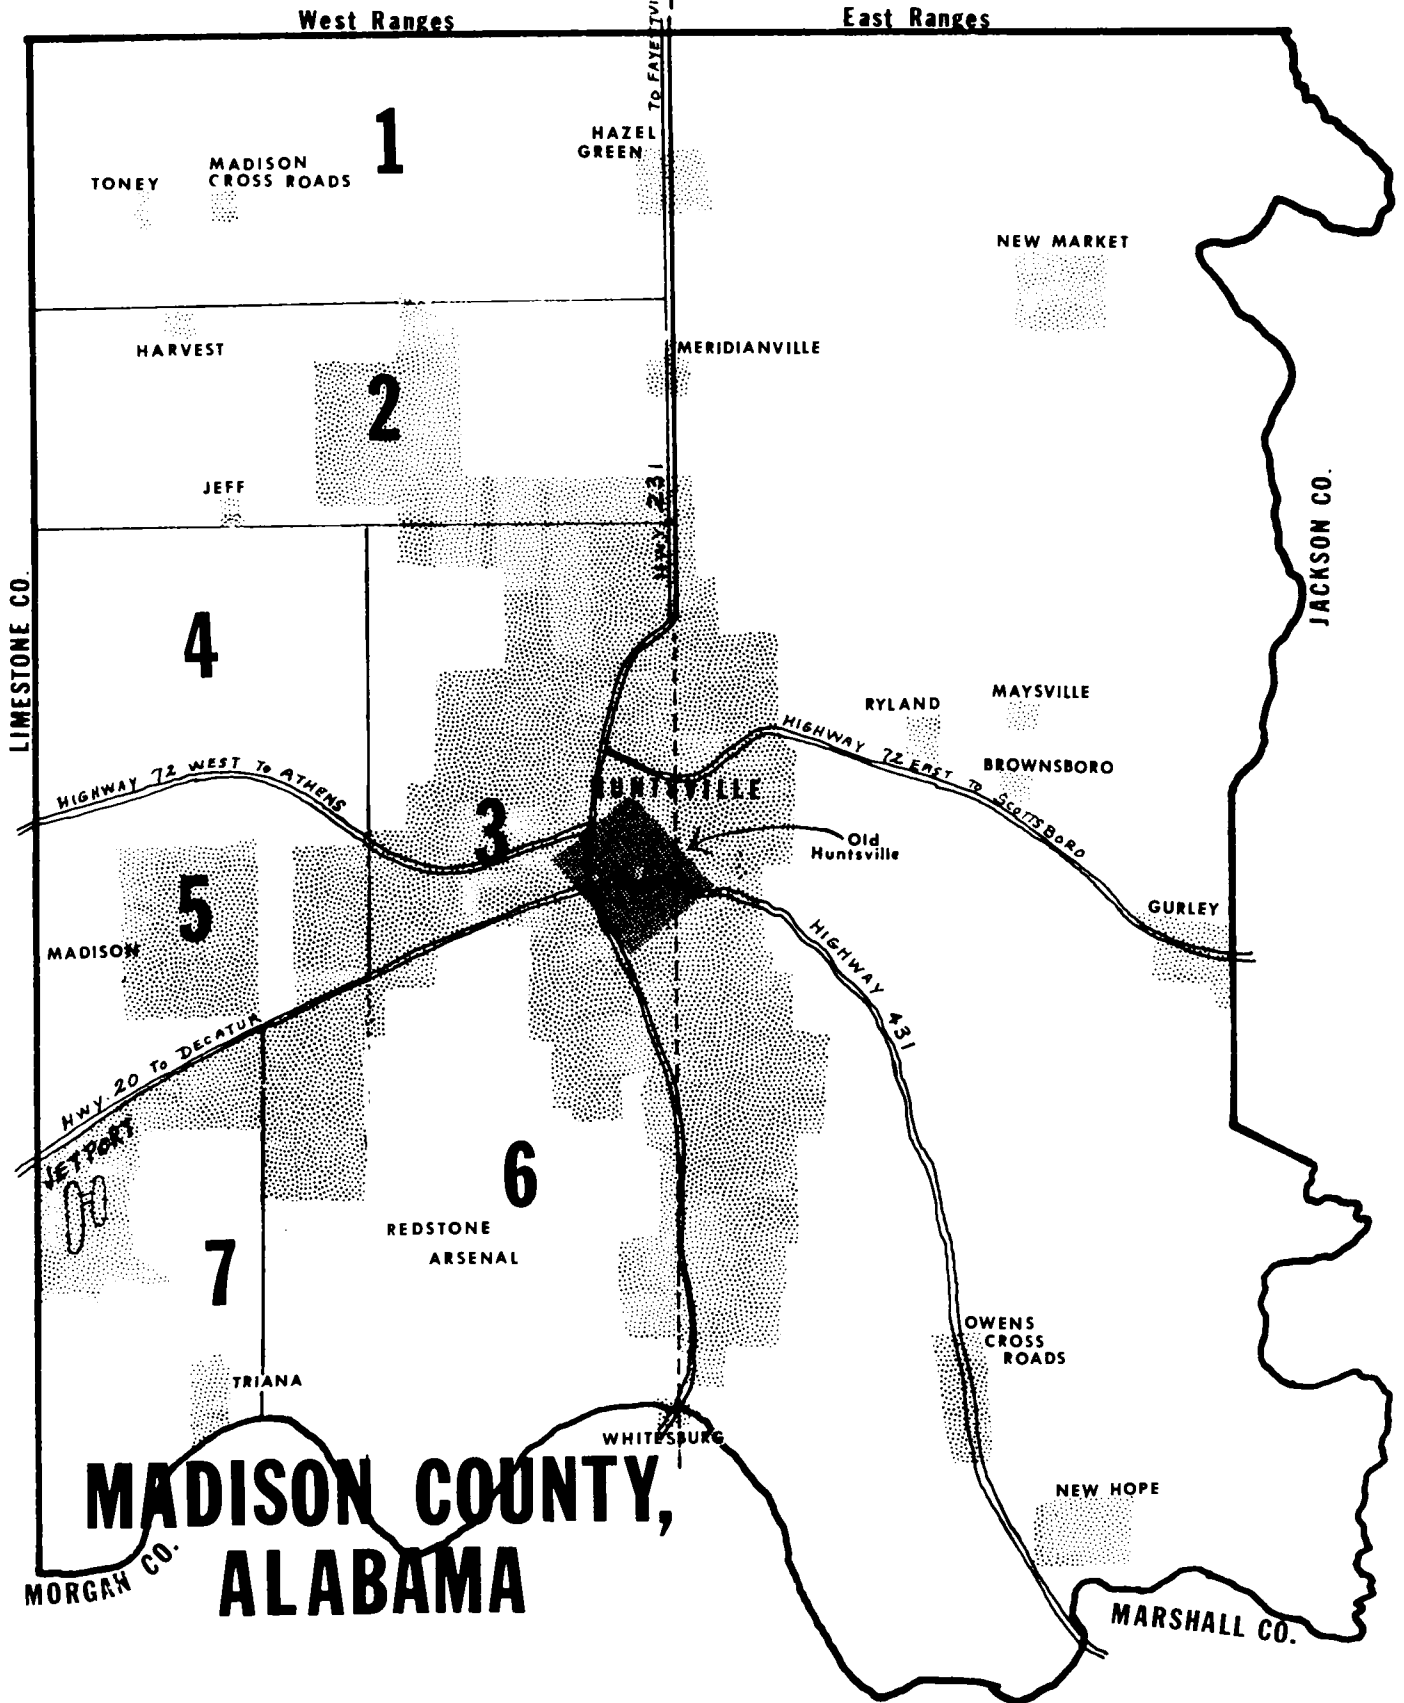

My apologies to the science of cartography. The maps of the various sections of Madison County were intended as nothing more than aides in locating the various cemeteries. By comparing my small maps to a large, professional map you should be able to drive or walk directly to most of the graveyards described in this work.

Before striking off across a field to visit a cemetery I urge you to ask permission of the landowner. Not only is this a matter of common courtesy but also a matter of safety. You never know what sort of trouble you may miss out on by asking permission first. At one farm home I stopped at I was given the third degree, accused of cattle rustling and threatened with a gun. It seems they had some of their cattle stolen the night before and the lady was taking no chances. I'd hate to think what might have happened to me had I gone striking off across her cattle pasture without permission.

GOLIGHTLY CEMETERY (3)

GOLIGHTLY, SARAH - Sarah Golightly departed this Life February 17, 1847 in the 40th year of her age. Erected by R. H. Golightly.

NOTE: According to folk tradition in the community, Sarah and her husband, Hugh Golightly, agreed to be buried five miles apart. They died within seven days of each other and even though her name is noted on Hugh's stone she is actually buried in this location. Sarah's marker in this cemetery is identical to that of Hugh's in the other cemetery as is the beautiful wrought iron fence surrounding the graves.

Sarah Golightly's marker is the only legible one in this large plot, however, there are many unmarked graves and we located three slate markers which had crumbled beyond reading. We also counted ten graves marked by fieldstones.

This cemetery is on land now (1970) owned by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gibson. Mrs. Gibson took us to the graves and pointed out the unmarked grave of a Campbell child. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have respectfully and laboriously kept this cemetery cleaned of brush and undergrowth even though none of their own people are buried here.

A road once ran along the west side of this cemetery and was the old Huntsville stage road but it has not been used for nearly a half century.

ADAMS-CRUTCHER CEMETERY (4)

LOCATION: Section 31-1S-2W. W/2 W/2 SW. This tiny family cemetery is located on the Madison County side of the Madison-Limestone County line. To get to it one must walk approximately one-half mile off the main road.

ADAMS, JOSEPH - In Memory of Joseph Adams, Born Dec. 1, 1779 - Died March 31st, 1838 Aged 65 years, 3 Mo., and 30 days.

ADAMS, JAMES - In Memory of James Adams, Born April 1st, 1854 & Died June 7th 1855.

CRUTCHER, SARAH JANE - Consort of William R. Crutcher, born December 30th, 1837 and died April 2nd, 1856 Aged 18 Years, 3 Months and 2 Days. Favour is deceitful and beauty is vain but a woman that feared the Lord shall be praised. Proverbs: 31st Chapt., and 30th Verse.

Note: There were two unmarked graves in this cemetery which were easily seen and perhaps some which we were unable to discern.

MINOR CEMETERY (5)

LOCATION: Section 29-1S-2W. E/2 SE/4.

MINOR, WILLIAM, Sr. - Sacred to the Memory of William Minor Senr., Son of Daniel and Mary Minor who was born in Halifax (Ca) Va., Decr. 8th, 1786, and Departed this life June 5, 1844 Aged 58 years.

NOTE: This cemetery appeared to have been surrounded by a hand made-brick wall at one time. There were three large piles of over-sized hand-made brick plus some which were scattered at random on the ground. Cattle are allowed to mill around this tiny cemetery and it appears some of the markers have been destroyed. There were obviously other graves in this plot but we could not locate the markers. There was one slate marker found but it had weathered far beyond reading.

Note: This cemetery was all but destroyed several months ago by neighborhood boys hunting rabbits, according to a near by resident. Cattle have now been let into the graveyard and have about finished the destruction the irresponsible boys began. I spent several hours here attempting to find missing parts to the many pieces of tombstones but was unsuccessful for the most part. It was like trying to fit together a giant jigsaw puzzle. Bear with me.

MOORE JONES CEMETERY (22)

LOCATION: Section 11-1S-1W - NE NE NW NW. One mile south of the Tennessee state line and 1-3/4 mile west of U. S. Highway 231-431 on Kennard Road (also called Elkwood Section Road).

NOTE: This single, marble obelisk marker is across the road and a few feet east of the point where Edgar Gooch Road intersects with Kennard Road. This lonely marker leans and is tied to a tree for support. It once rested among other markers in this graveyard but past land owners have disrespectfully chosen to use more of the land for cotton and have destroyed the graves and markers.

MOORE, EZEKIEL - Born Aug. 20, 1769 - Died Jan. 30, 1831.

JONES, MARY - Departed this life May 6, 1855 in the 66th year of her age.

Family notes: Mary was the daughter of Charles King. She first married a man named Bush. Her second marriage was to Ezekiel Moore as his second wife. After Moore's death she married Armistead Jones as his second wife.

WALLS CEMETERY

Courthouse land records show that one-half (1/2) acre in the southeast corner of Sec. 22-1S-1W was "excepted" in 1857 as the Walls Cemetery. The SE corner of Section 22-1S-1W is the northwest corner of the Ready Section Road and Pulaski Pike intersection. Long-time residents of the community say they do not remember there ever being a cemetery at that location but there was one located on Ready Section Road just a quarter mile west of that intersection. I was told that in about 1949 the county cut the road through there and since the cemetery was in the way, and it was less trouble to destroy than move, it was destroyed.

Note: The head and foot stones of James Thomas were outside the fence which enclosed these graves but according to a family descendant he is actually buried within the fence. Why his stones are outside the fence is unknown. There are some unmarked graves outside the fence but the family descendant said that only the above four were "supposed" to be buried here. The unmarked graves may be the graves of slaves.

MITCHELL CEMETERY (3)

LOCATION: Section 22-2S-1W. N/2 N/2 N/2. On Monroe Road, 1/2 mile north and 2-1/2 miles west of Meridianville, Ala.

Note: This solitary stone is outside what was once the yard of an old home. The house has burned but the barn is still standing in 1970. On a visit to this grave in October, 1970, we discovered that someone had recently pulled the stone out of the ground and it was lying flat on the ground. Such a disrespectful act is inexcusable!

MITCHELL, JOHN W. - Sacred to the memory of John W., son of Obediah and Margaret Mitchell, born in Madison Co., Ala., March 13th, 1818, died September 13th, 1854.

Census, Oct. 30, 1850:

William	( 3) "
Sarah	( 2) "

Note: After the death of John W., Didama married William McWilliams on November 25, 1858 (MB-4B).

Local folk lore relates that John W. Mitchell died under mysterious circumstances and the authorities wished to perform an autopsy to determine the cause of death. The father, Obediah, refused to allow the autopsy but he was afraid they would exhume the body and perform it anyway. Thus the old gentleman buried his son so the grave could be seen from his bedroom window. He then rigged a shotgun aimed toward the grave so it would be handy in case his fears proved right.

TURNER-MALONE CEMETERY (13)

LOCATION: Sec. 12-2S-2W - NE SE SE NE. Approx. 2 Mi. SE of Madison Cross Rds.

Note: This is a most unusually constructed cemetery. It appears to be in two parts. The oldest part is at the base of a small hill and actually appears to be in an area which was scooped out of the side of the hill then the bank reinforced with a stone wall of beautiful workmanship. The Turner and Harden graves are on the top of the hill immediately above the others. This beautiful old sacred ground is presently being used as a trash dump by the tenants who evidently have no respect for such things. There are other graves here but the markers are gone.

Note: Obituary of Capt. Dudley Sale:

"Captain Dudley Sale was born in Amherst Co., Va., October 25, 1781, moved to Georgia with his parents when quite young. He emigrated to Madison Co., Ala. in 1814 when it was but newly settled. He first settled on Beaver Dam Creek near Meridianville; soon afterwards he purchased the place where his residence now stands. Here he raised a family of twelve children, who with him were not only respected but loved by everyone. He possessed great business qualities, far above ordinary men. He had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, for more than 40 years and perhaps there was no man ever lived who had fewer enemies than he. He was twice happily married and in both instances a most devoted husband. He died January 16, 1867 leaving a wife, three children, 13 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren."

Note: The old Sale-Nance plantation home was built in 1830 and was located across Burwell Road from the cemetery. When I first visited it in November of 1968 it had been abandoned several years and was in such a state of disrepair that the second floor had fallen onto the ground level. Later, a severe wind-storm crumbled the old white, clapboard home. Only the chimney now stands and in it is one brick with the date "1830" clearly outlined for all to see.

SEAY, ELIZABETH - Born in Bottetourt County, Virginia, 1785, died March 3, 1850.

Note: This approximately five-acre burial plot contains countless graves but only two are marked. Of the two, only Elizabeth Seay's is legible. The other grave is marked by crude chiseling on a rough, natural rock and the number "3" is visible along with what appears to be an "H" and a "G".

WILBURN CEMETERY (17)

LOCATION: Sec. 22-2S-2W. S/2 NE SE NE. On west side of Jeff Road behind the county sheds.

Note: This cemetery was completely destroyed by a previous land owner many years ago. Most of the stones were hauled to a nearby house and laid into a driveway. We dug up the stones but the inscriptions had been worn off from many years of use. Rock tombs surrounded by rock walls are still in existence in this cemetery but all identification is gone. Even though this is called the Wilburn Cemetery there are several other families represented here including a young woman named Taft, according to a local resident.

In the 1930's Kathleen Paul Jones and Pauline Jones Gandrud compiled a record of many of the old cemeteries in Madison County. Fortunately, the Wilburn is one they copied and Mrs. Gandrud has given permission to use her records here:

WILBURN, JAMES - Born January 10, 1789 - died January 29, 1846.

DEDMAN CEMETERY (25)

LOCATION: Sec. 29-2S-2W. E/2 E/2 SE NE. On Wall Highway.

KNOX, ROBERT - Robert, son of Walter & Mary E. Knox. Born Feb. 19, 1906, died April 15, 1907. Asleep in Jesus.

Note: Wall Highway curves slightly around this cemetery which is known in the community as the Dedman Cemetery. Some of the residents recall attending grave-side funeral services here many years ago. This cemetery has been all but destroyed in recent years and one lady saw a certain individual actually take headstones from this cemetery. Attempts to find what was done with the stones have been without success. It is certain that members of the Dedman family are buried here but I have no record of which ones. The tiny tombstone of Robert Knox, above, is the only stone left. Those individuals responsible for the destruction of this cemetery evidently overlooked this tiny stone or thought it too small to bother with! The people living directly across the road were not aware this was a cemetery.

Note: About 1920, after the cemetery had been neglected for many years, Messrs. D. E. Kelly, J. O. Kelly and G. L. Kelly, brothers (all deceased), undertook to reclaim and preserve the lot. They enclosed it with the present fence and as there were many graves with no stones they had a number of concrete markers made. They did the best they could to place these at the correct graves. The names were put on but they made no attempt to put dates on the markers and there may still be some unmarked graves.

In the early 1930's, when a grave was being dug for a member of the Phillips family, those digging the grave found they had dug into an unmarked grave. The Kelly family attempted to determine the identity of the person buried there but was unsuccessful, therefore, the site of this grave has no marker.

ALLEN, MASSIE U. - May 7, 1868 - October 21, 1892.

THOMPSON - Our loved one at rest. Infant daughter of J. H. & W. D. Thompson, died February 4, 1882.

THOMPSON, WILLIAM ROBADORE - Our loved Robadore at rest. William Robadore, son of J. H. & W. D. Thompson. Died Oct. 9, 1879 aged 1 Yr., 1 (??) Mo., and 12 days. (Note: weathered stone).

Note: Next to this grave is an adult size "sink" which may be the grave of the father of these Thompson children, James Henry Thompson who died in 1901. There is no marker at this grave. Mrs. Richard Gilliam has in her possession a letter dated October 30, 1880 and written by Mary Susannah Garvin Thompson, the children's grandmother. The letter states that William Robadore died Oct. 9, 1880 and that her own mother (Eveline Haws Garvin) died Oct. 19, 1880. Mary Susannah Garvin Thompson was the wife of Rufus Morgan Thompson. I assume that William Robadore did in fact die Oct. 9, 1880 and that the date on the tombstone is incorrect. The Thompson children, above, were the children of James Henry Thompson and Williamette Dixie Pettus.

FAMILY NOTES

BINFORD CEMETERY (12)

LOCATION: Sec. 25-3S-1W. SW SE NW. One-half mile due east of the Huntsville Memory Garden east entrance and approximately 1/6 mile north of Highway 72 to Athens.

Note: This cemetery covers a large area which is completely concealed by a thick, tangled growth of ivy. The remains of another box type tomb is here but I couldn't locate the inscription bearing lid. There was also a part of a marble upright but I couldn't locate the rest of it which was the part bearing the inscription. In order to be sure of getting all the stones in this cemetery it will require either some heavy equipment or several sturdy men to clear the undergrowth. Adjacent to this plot (west) is a cleared area with many, many "sinks" but no markers and it is probably the slave burial ground. A few hundred feet southwest of the cemetery was found a brick foundation to a building which may have been the old Binford home.

BINFORD, PETER - Sacred to the Memory of Peter Binford, Son of John M. and Frances Binford. Born Feb. 11th, 1786 - died Jan<sup>y</sup>. 10th, 1839. (Box tomb).

1 male born between 1810-1814
2 males born between 1800-1809
1 male born between 1780-1789 (this is probably Peter).
2 females born between 1815-1819
1 female born between 1810-1814
63 slaves

CHAPTER 5

CLIFT CEMETERY (1)

LOCATION: Sec. 29-3S-2W. NW NW NW SW. In a field a few yards south of Highway 20 (University Drive).

CLIFT, JOHN H. - Born Sept. 5, 1821 - died March 25, 1893.

Note: These stones are the only two left in this tiny family plot but there may have been others originally. These stones are covered with dirt and are broken into many pieces; they will not survive much longer. Both are marble uprights.

Census, Nov. 4, 1850:

Clift, John H.	(29) Ala.	farmer - $100.
Mary	(30) Tenn.
Francis M.	( 6) Ala.
Nancy C.	( 4) Ala.

McCAULEY CEMETERY (2)

LOCATION: Sec. 31-3S-2W. E/2 SE SW. In a cow pasture behind a stock barn just south of Highway 20 (University Drive); one-half mile west of the Highway 20 and Wall Highway intersection.

Note: This small family cemetery is in deplorable condition to the point there is hardly anything left to show it is a cemetery. Cattle have been turned into the pasture in which the cemetery is located and have destroyed and scattered the stones. There were four "sinks" indicating graves but only the broken parts of two markers were left. Both markers were beautifully lettered marble uprights. I looked about for pieces of these stones in order to reconstruct them but they were nowhere to be found. Careful probing in the ground did not reveal any other stones even though there were obviously several more graves.

McCAULEY, MARTHA - Born 184.., died .....(rest of stone gone).

McCAULEY, MARTIN - Born 18.., ..... May .....(rest of stone gone).

Note: The 1850 census lists Jane Gray as 62 years old, born in Ireland, and making her home with the James H. Pride family.

GRAY, ELEANOR - Here lies the Body of Eleanor Gray. She departed this life December 15th, 1822 in the 65th Year of Her Age.

GRAY, JOSEPH - In Memory of Joseph Gray who Departed this Life March ..... 1829 in the ... year of his Age.

Note: The graves of Eleanor, William and Joseph were together and covered with brick. At the head of each of these brick covered graves is a sandstone marker. The inscriptions on Joseph's and William's headstones have all but eroded away but Eleanor's is in better condition. When facing these headstones, Eleanor's is on the left, William's in the center and Joseph's on the right. It will be only a short time before all identification will have weathered off these stones and then it will be impossible to tell who is in which grave.

LEONARD, HENRY DWIGHT - Henry Dwight, son of James L. R. & Sarah Leonard, Died August 15, 1853 Aged 1 Year, 11 Months & 16 Days. (Note: Next to this grave is the unmarked, rock-covered grave of a child).

SANDERSON, R. R. - Son of Jere & Sarah Sanderson. Born Marc[h] 14, 1846, died Nov. 22, 1846. (Note: The "h" in March was left off; stonecutter's error).

SISCO - Born Nov. 10, 1896 - died August 9, 1903. Gone but not forgotten.

Note: The first names of the Sisco children were not on their stones.

WOOD, D. M. - Sacred to the Memory of D. M. Wood who Departed this Life August 14th, 1835 in the 38th Year of his Age. He lived respected and died lamented by all who knew him.

NOTE: This cemetery is shown on TVA quadrangle and local county maps as the "Betts" Cemetery but that is incorrect. This cemetery covers several acres and marked and unmarked graves are spread all over the acreage. I dug several markers out of many years' accumulation of leaves and dirt and can't help but wonder how many more I couldn't locate. This cemetery is unique in Madison County because of its many brick covered graves. We counted 11 brick covered graves, several stone-covered graves and one very large brick wall enclosing several more graves which didn't have markers. The bricks were hand-made, probably by slave labor, and the top layer of brick on the wall had been glazed. It must have been a beautiful wall at one time.

This was originally the graveyard of the Providence Church which was located on the hill above. The church building has been gone many years.

Above (east of) this cemetery are graves of the negro Betts family but there are no markers there to show the spot.

LIPSCOMB CEMETERY ①

LOCATION: Redstone Arsenal. Section 24-4S-2W. SW SW.

LIPSCOMB, ROBERT M. - Born September 20, 1824, died November 19, 1852 (1832?)
(NOTE: Because of the style of lettering used, and some weathering, it was impossible to tell if the year of death was 1832 or 1852. Assuming this is the same Robert Lipscomb listed in the 1850 census the date of death would be 1852.)

LIPSCOMB, HARRIET N. - Born April 28, 1843, died November 15, 1856.

NOTE: There were four obelisks in this cemetery of which those of Richard and Robert (above) were quite large; the one marking Harriet's grave was much smaller in appearance but that may have been because it was badly broken.

There was one other very large obelisk in this cemetery but a thorough search failed to reveal any inscription. These four markers were in a row and the blank one was between those of Robert and Harriet.

Census, November 9, 1850:

LANIER CEMETERY (2)

LOCATION: Redstone Arsenal. Section 6-5S-1W. S/2 S/2 SW SE. This cemetery is located in a restricted area and is reached only by walking through rough terrain covered with heavy vegetation. The cemetery itself is surrounded by a wrought iron fence and is extremely well kept. A sign on the rusty gate says: "Stewart Iron Works, Cincinnati, Ohio."

LANIER, I. A. - 1816 - 1894

LANIER, B. C. - 1820 - 1895

LANIER, F. C. - 1867 - 1881

Note: The above three stones were in the first row and the remainder of the stones were in the back row. The grave of B. C. Lanier, below, was located between two large cedar trees.

LANIER, M. S. - 1801 - 1853

Burrel C.	(29)	"	" -M- Laura P. A. Ford 5-26-1853(MB-4A).

NOTE:

The driver, Specialist Bennett, and I were escorted into this area by Mr. William Bass who was quite familiar with this particular region. The area covered several hundred acres and without Mr. Bass' expert guidance and knowledge of the terrain the trip would have been useless. He took us directly to six cemeteries of which three had no stones and of which there is no known record of their names. Mr. Bass pointed to a saddle between the Bradford and Hatton Mountains in the distance and told us of another cemetery located there - one which is not on any map.

A few yards south of the above Lanier Cemetery is a colored cemetery but common sense prevented us from trying to locate it. The area is swampy and recent heavy July rains had not helped the situation. Poisonous snakes abound and in some places the foliage is so thick one can not see for a distance of more than a foot or two. Mr. Bass told us that Arsenal personnel were unaware of either of these cemeteries until a request was made for a burial in the colored cemetery. The area, at that time, was so remote and unfamiliar that it took the Corps of Engineers some time to locate the cemetery and build a road to it. No trace of the road was left.

GROVES CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 14-4S-2W, approx. SE SE NW. In the saddle between Bradford and Hatton Mountains.

NOTE: This location is inaccessible except to certain authorized personnel and I did not actually visit the cemetery. The information was kindly obtained and supplied to me by Mr. William Bass.

There is only one engraved stone here, that of Austin Groves which is a military marker. Mr. Bass said there were other graves here marked with unlettered fieldstone. This is believed to be a Negro cemetery.

GROVES, AUSTIN - Austin Groves, Co. A, Second U.S.C.L. (No other info.)

CLARK and SIMPSON-JONES CEMETERIES

LOCATION: Redstone Arsenal. Section 18-5S-1W. SE NE. The Clark Cemetery and the Simpson-Jones Cemetery are only a few yards apart but appear to have been two separate cemeteries when burials were being conducted there. (Restricted Area).

CLARK CEMETERY (4)

NOTE: This large obelisk was covered with ivy and the area around it was covered with vegetation which towered above our heads. For this reason we can not be certain there were not more stones but if there were we could not locate them.

CLARK, LUCY - To the Memory of Lucy Clark, born November 29, 1790, died December 25, 1844.

SIMPSON-JONES CEMETERY (5)

JONES, MARY LOU - Daughter of A. G. & Z. M. Proctor, born August 27, 1888, died September 10, 1888.

NOTE: The names of eight members of the Simpson family were on one large beautifully carved monument. There were no dates on the stone and in order to retain the historical significance of the monument I have chosen to list the names as they were written on the stone:

LOCATION: Redstone Arsenal. Section 22-5S-1W. S/2 S/2 S/2 NW/4.

Note: This is a well-kept family cemetery enclosed by a brick wall. The grave of J. H. Timmons lies outside the brick enclosure, probably because of lack of space inside.

DAVIES, JANES - In Memory of Janes Davies, Born August 20, 1784, died December 3, 1848, aged 64 years.

Note: On our first trip to this cemetery we did not notice the top of this headstone protruding from the ground. It was on the second trip, when accompanied by Mr. M. R. Stevens of the Public Relations office who spotted it, that we were able to dig the dirt from around the stone and get the reading.

Some Rohm & Haas personnel, who were cleaning the graveyard, told us that the tornado of December 19, 1967, which struck Huntsville, had set down on the graveyard and destroyed many of the stones including some box tombs. The stone of Janes Davies appeared to have been driven deep into the ground and was possibly the result of the tornado.

HOWELL, PRUDENCE KASANDREA - In Memory of Prudence Kasandrea Howell, daughter of Alfred & Sarah G. Howell, born July 2nd, 1830, died December 8th, 1840.

HOWELL, ALBERTA ANN - In Memory of Alberta Ann Howell, daughter of Alfred and Sarah G. Howell, born ...ember 3rd, 1828(1838?), died May 31, 1837. (Note: The bottom part of the stone, carrying the birth and death dates, had broken away from the rest of the stone and was broken and very difficult to read.

Note: The graves of Mary W. Lacy and Prudence K. and Alberta A. Howell were identical box-type tombs unlike any others found in Madison County. Most box type tombs are made of plain quarried stone slabs; the above three were cast in cement with molded sides and ends.

Note: There were several unmarked graves in this well-kept, shaded cemetery. In another section of this plot were a cluster of graves with funeral markers which had rusted far beyond reading. Only one funeral marker was legible to any degree and we were able to make out the last three letters of the person's last name and part of the death date as follows: "Name.....UDE, Died.....4, 1939".

LANDMAN CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 31-4S-1W. In approximate center of section.

Note: There were twelve graves with box-type tombs in this cemetery plus one grave marked at the head and foot with a fieldstone. Of the box-type markers one was marble (that of Frances L. Landman) and the others were undressed fieldstone. Each grave was checked closely for hand-carved initials but only one revealed any kind of identification which appeared to be: "H. J. L."

LANDMAN, FRANCES L. - Frances L. Landman Born in Campbell Co. Va., in 1773, Died March 7, 1860. Peace be to your precious soul. Paulina.

Note: She was nee Frances Louise Moore. It is unknown who "Paulina" is. Her husband, William Landman, is also buried here in one of the unmarked graves. William was born c. 1780 and died between 1815 and 1830.

JONES CEMETERY (14)

LOCATION: Section 22-4S-1W. NW NE SE. Redstone Arsenal, Vietnam Village.

HAWKINS, MARIA A. - Maria A. Hawkins, nee Jones, Born July 17, 1818, Died Feb. ...., 1888. In full assurance of faith.

Note: The day of death had been chipped away and the stone broken but legible except for that. The stone was broken through the year of death but it is fairly certain that it was "1888".

Maria A. Jones married Henry L. Ward on June 13, 1839 and, second, married Wiley T. Hawkins on October 7, 1857.

We counted five unmarked graves in this tiny cemetery.

MATKIN CEMETERY (15)

LOCATION: Sec. 22-4S-1W. W/2 W/2 NE/4. Redstone Arsenal. Vietnam Village.

MATKIN, MARGARET - Sacred to the Memory of Margaret Matkin, daughter of Archibald & Elizabeth McDonnell, Consort of William Matkin. Born March 20, 1800, died March 8, 1849. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

Note: The marker on Margaret Matkin's grave was most unusual. It was in the form of a large cement box with the inscription on the top side, face up.

MATKIN, MARY PATTON - Sacred to the Memory of Mary Patton, daughter of William & M. Matkin, born August 7th, 1836, died Oct. 7th, 1840.

Note: Mary's marker is a medium sized obelisk. Next to it is another obelisk which was blank on all sides and a thorough examination of the base did not disclose an inscription.

The rock wall surrounding this cemetery is most picturesque. The rock is field stone which probably was picked off the ground in the area, probably by slaves many, many years ago. Only a few of the top row of stones have tumbled to the ground which speaks well for the workmanship.

SCOTT-WILLIAMS CEMETERY (16)

SCOTT, ELIZABETH D. - In Memory of Elizabeth D. Scott, consort of Thomas A. Scott, died March 3d, 1839 in the 54th year of her age.

Note: The Thomas A. Scott family is listed in the 1830 Census. Mr. Scott is also listed in the census of November 4, 1850 as living alone, aged 57, a Press Maker born in South Carolina.

The TVA map refers to this well cared for, fenced graveyard as the Williams Cemetery, however, the only stone was that of Mrs. Scott. There appeared to be numerous unmarked graves in this very old plot.

JAMAR CEMETERY

①

Note: Marriage Book No. 4 states that Richard Jamar and Sarah Hatton obtained their marriage license May 15, 1838 and were married by J. W. Allen May 29, 1838. I do not know whether the marriage book or tombstone is correct.

JAMAR, RICHARD - Born in Richmond, Va., Sept. 12, 1785 - Died in Madison County, Ala., June 22, 1872 Aged 86 years, 9 mo. and 10 days.

OWEN, MARY C. - Wife of Thos J. Owen, daughter of Richard Jamar. Died Sept. 30, 1849.

NOTE: This cemetery is on the verge of destruction. The stones are broken and I found one stone being used as a fill to stop erosion under a nearby fence.

LOCATION: Near Triana, Alabama.

COLLIER, JAMES - To the Memory of James Collier who was born in Lunenburg Co., Va., October 13th, A. D., 1757, and died the 20th of August, A. D., 1832. And though after my skin, worms destroy this body - yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself and my eyes shall behold and not another.

COLLIER, ELIZABETH BOULDIN - To the Memory of Elizabeth Bouldin of Charlotte County, Va., wife of James Collier, who was born the 13th (15th?) of February, A. D., 1763, and died the 23rd of February, A. D., 1828. All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as a flower of the field, for the wind passeth over it and it is gone and the place thereof shall know it no more.

Note: James married Elizabeth Bouldin July 3, 1777 in Lunenburg County, Va. She was the daughter of James Bouldin (eldest son of Col. Thomas Bouldin) and Nancy Clark. They moved to Madison County, Alabama, in 1818.

NOTE: From various old records it appears certain the above Colliers were buried on their plantation in Madison County. I have been unable to locate anyone who knows the exact location of the cemetery, however, and considerable inquiring in the, now predominately Negro, area has proved unsuccessful. I heard some time ago that the area where the cemetery stood had been bulldozed, but this is not certain. Family members have verified its destruction.

OLD TRIANA CEMETERY (3)

Note: This cemetery plot is quite large, extremely well kept and only sparsely spotted with graves. It appears that the founders were looking ahead when they designated this large plot of ground for the cemetery but the town died long before it was full. Graves in this cemetery appear in clusters with each family somewhat set apart from the others.

The town of Triana was incorporated on November 13, 1819 and the city fathers were Henry Chambers, Waddy Tate, William Adair, John T. Lindsay and Thomas Bibb. History associates these names more closely with Huntsville than Triana.

Triana is situated on the banks of the Tennessee River and was established as a port from which to ship the cotton produced by the fruitful plantations nearby. When the railroad went through the area the planters started shipping their cotton by rail and the need for a port vanished. The bottom dropped out of the price of cotton in the 1840's and ruined many large planters. After the Civil War labor to work the fields became a problem and the town of Triana died. The town is now predominately Negro as is the general farming region.
