STOGSDALE CEMETERY

LOCATION: Probably in the NW/4 of Sec. 19-1-2E. I foolishly did not take my map when I walked to this cemetery and am, therefore, guessing. I was taken to this cemetery by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bice.

STOGSDALE - In Memory of James H. Stogsdale. Born Dec. 12, 1821 - Died Oct. 18, 1849.

Note: This was the only stone left but family descendants tell me that James H. Stogsdale's wife and daughter are buried here also. That would be Eleanor ("Ellen") M. Yancy whom he married in Limestone County Sept. 8, 1847. Their daughter, Rebecca, who married William Edwards Dec. 8, 1869 is also buried here.

1850 Census

Yancy, W. E. (fem.)	10	"

The Mortality Schedule lists J. H. Stogsdell, age 28 years, died in October, born in Alabama, a Carpenter by trade, ill three months before death. Another early record of a Stogsdale in Madison County was Mary J. Stogsdale who married R. G. White Sept. 8, 1866 plus Ellen Stocksdale who married Seabourn Jones Feb. 16, 1851 (See Page 298.)
