

LYNN CEMETERY

LOCATION: Unknown

Benjamin Lynn and his wife, Hannah (Nee Severns or Sovereigns) moved to Madison County, Alabama, in 1810. They lived with their daughter and son-in-law (John Chisholm [Chism] and Ester (Lynn) Chisholm. John Chisholm owned the SW/4 of Section 30-2-1E and it is possible that Benjamin and Hannah are buried there. Meridian Pike edges this property on the west and businesses have grown up along the highway [now Highway 231/431].

According to The Filson Club History Quarterly, Volume 20, Page 156, Lynn "organized a Christian Church near Huntsville, and it was in the churchyard there that he was buried in December, 1814, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. His wife had died in the preceeding May." Benjamin Lynn married Hannah Severns July 9, 1777.

CLARK - In Memory of Lee clark, Born february 15th 1866 - Died January 30th 1888

Note: There were seven obvious graves in this cemetery that did not have lettered markers. Two of them were adults and five were children. One of the baby's graves is that of Pearlle Lee Bice, a six month old child who died around 1900 of pneumonia.

Next to the Clark graves was one other grave marked with unlettered fieldstone.

TALLEY TOMBSTONE

Note: This tombstone was found on Monte Sano Mountain at one of the overlooks. The gentleman in charge of the grounds took it to the grounds shed and as of April, 1978 it is still there. No one knows where it belongs.

TALLEY - Jack Talley - 1911 - 1936 - Weep not father and mother for me, for I am waiting in glory for thee. [marble marker]
