INTRODUCTION

If half the graves in Madison County have tombstones it would surprise me so if you are certain your ancestors are buried here but there is no mention of them in this book they may not have stones marking their graves. In the nine years I have worked on this book I have made a concentrated effort to locate every graveyard (abandoned, destroyed, or otherwise) in this part of Madison County, but I'm sure, if the law of averages prevails, others will turn up after this book has gone to press.

For those who died prior to the Civil War only the more affluent families erected tombstones and not even some of those. This was mainly due to lack of craftsmen living in this area. The stones had to be hauled from Tennessee, usually by ox-cart, and the early settlers had other uses for their money such as food and shelter. During the Great Depression the percentage of marked graves went down, however, when times got better many families did later mark the graves of their loved ones.

You will find some cemeteries in alphabetical order. These were copied years ago (but proof read recently). Later I quit putting them in alphabetical order and typed them as they were copied.

In order to help tie families together genealogically I have indexed women by their married name and by their maiden name if it was on the tombstone. When indexing by the maiden name the married name is always in brackets. For instance, Annie Keel Birchfield will be listed in the index twice; under the B's she will be listed by her married name:

Birchfield, Annie Keel, 293

She will also be listed in the K's by her maiden name:

Keel, Annie [Birchfield], 293

If you find some women also indexed by their middle name it is because I can not tell the difference between a maiden and middle name in some instances. There is no way for me to know which it is and since it is better to over index than under index I have included them.

You will find some cemeteries "continued" to the back of the book. These were cemeteries I canvassed several years ago. When I went back to check my work I found several additional burials. Rather than retype the entire book (!!) or rearrange page numbers (!!) I added them at the end.

In order to assist the reader in locating the cemeteries listed in this work on any good map the legal description of the cemetery is given. The legal descriptions will mean as much in a hundred years as they do today while the roads and their names may change and the land owners will most assuredly change. All cemeteries in this book are in the east ranges, i.e., east of the meridian. If a range is "east" you will know automatically it refers to land lying east of Meridian Street as, generally speaking, that is the dividing line between the east and west ranges.

For example, if a location is listed as SE NW NE of Sec. 7, you should first locate the NE quarter of the entire section; then locate the NW quarter of the NE quarter and last you go to the center of the SE quarter of the NW quarter. In reading a location description always read it backwards. When a description shows the S/2 or the NE/4, for instance, this means the south half or the northeast quarter of the section.

If any of my readers knows of a cemetery in the northeast portion of Madison County, still in existence or not, that is not included in this book I would appreciate knowing about it. Please feel free to call me at 539-9060. If you have inscriptions from tombstones that are now gone I would also appreciate having that information.

- GODBEY - Evaline M. Godbey. Our Precious Mother. On the certain hope of a glorious resurrection through the grace of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Here rests Evaline M. Godbey who was the wife of Rev. Crockett Godbey and the daughter of James R. and Rachel Forgey of Hawkins Co., Tenn., and who fell on sleep June 10, 1914 at Decatur, Alabama in the 78th year of her age. With all the earnestness given to mortals she adored righteousness, shunned evil, deplored the world's suffering, strove to relieve its distress, wrought for the prosperity of Zion, and experienced the actual knowledge of things spiritual. Faithful unto death she hath done what she could. Yet in our ears till hearing dies, one set slow bell will seem to toll the passing of the truest soul, that ever looked with human eyes.

SANDERS CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 8-1-1E. N/2 SW NE.) 1-1/8 mi. east of Memorial Parkway in pasture 1/8 mi. east ) off Mulberry Rd. & 3/4 mi. north of Carringer Road.

BEVERLY - Florence, Dau. of J. W. & Ella Beverly, Born Jan. 16, 1903 - Died Mar. 5, 1903.

There were many "sinks" in this cemetery but no other markers. This is the family cemetery of the renowned Rev. C. B. Sanders, better known as "the Sleeping Preacher." This cemetery was "excepted" in a deed from Louisa R. Sanders, William W. Sanders, and Eliza A. Sanders to Ambrose S. Foster on Dec. 26, 1874 (Deed Book YY, Page 401). The deed states that William W. and Eliza A. are husband and wife, and with Louisa reserve a half acre, "...the family grave yard."

CABANISS CEMETERY

Location: Section 7-1-1E, N/2 N/2 SE SE - Off Mulberry Road near intersection of Mulberry Road and Carringer Road, one mile east of Highway 231-431.

There are no stones in this cemetery but at least two persons are buried here, Lucy and Charles Cabaniss. The tombstone to mark their memory is in Maple Hill Cemetery and reads as follows:

Chas. & Lucy W. Cabaniss, Parents of Charles P. Cabaniss, and Native of Lunenburg County, Virginia, settled near Huntsville in 1810 on Northwest quarter of Section 29, Township 3, Range 1 East. Died March 20, 1825 and December 29, 1827, aged 50 and 51 years. Interred on Southeast quarter of Section 7, Township 1 South, Range 1 East.

Note: Charles Cabaniss erected the first known Cotton Spinning factory in Alabama in 1817-18.

McGEHEE CEMETERY

Location: Section 18-1-1E. S/2 NW/4. On bank of the West Fork of the Flint River and approximately 1/2 mile east of Highway 235-435.

McGEHEE - Thomas McGhee, Son of Micajah and Nancy McGhee was born Decr. 1, 1771 and departed this life April 18th, 1832 aged 60 years, 4 months and 18 days. (Box tomb)

Note: The last name was McGhee on stone of Thomas, above, whereas it was McGehee on the others.

McGEHEE - Nicholas A. McGehee, Born September, 1825 (1820?), died October 1, 1825 (1820?).

Note: The tombstone of Nicholas had weathered and I can not be sure whether the year is 1820 or 1825 due to the style of lettering.

McGEHEE - Wm. B. McGehee, Was born M _____ Departed this life _____.

Note: The marble headstone of Wm. B. had badly weathered. All lettering except the name was in very small, lightly cut, letters and was impossible to read.

There was another box tomb, that of a child, in this cemetery but there was no lettering on it. The only stone left in this cemetery is that of Nicholas A. The headstone of Wm. B. and the lid of Thomas' tomb had been removed and were lying next to an old shed just a few feet from the cemetery. Because of their weight we did not attempt to return them to their original places.

TOWNSEND CEMETERY

Location: Section 19-1-1E - NW NE. East of Memorial Parkway across field in woods.

TOWNSEND - In Memory of Samuel Townsend, born in Lunenburg County, Va. May 12, 1804, Died at his residence on this plantation Nov. 19, 1856.

TOWNSEND - In Memory of Edmund Townsend, Born in Lunenburg County, Va. Jan. 8, 1791, Emigrated to Madison County, Ala. in 1819. Died April 19, 1853 Aged 62 years, 3 Mo's. & 11 Days.

Note: Edmund's marker had fallen from its pedestal but was not broken. The marble marker of Samuel is one of the most beautiful in the county. It is not ornate but elegant in its simplicity and good taste and must be at least eight feet high. This cemetery is surrounded by a high stone slab wall which is falling in. There did not appear to be other markers in this plot but outside the wall there were "sinks" which may have been Townsend slave graves. The 1850 Madison County census lists Samuel Townsend, age 46, a farmer born in Va. with holdings valued at $25,000. Edmond is shown as 60 years old, farmer, born in Va. with holdings valued at $60,000. Both appeared to live alone.

WELBOURN-KING CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 301-1-E, NW NW SW. This cemetery is located in front of a service station on the east side of Highway 431-231 just south of Hazel Green.

KING - Sacred to the memory of Nancy King, born in 1800, died July 4, 1827.

Note: Nancy was the wife of Henry King and daughter of Isaac Welbourn (Wellborn?) who lies in an unmarked grave along with others of the family. This cemetery was destroyed when the service station was put in. Nancy Welborn King was thrown from a horse and killed. Her husband, Henry King, was a brother of William Whitfield King. After Nancy's death Henry went to South Alabama, married his cousin, died and is buried there. Henry was the son of Capt. Charles King.

JEFFRIES CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 29-1-1E. NW NW. Approximately one mile east of Hazel Green and several hundred yards south of the New Market Road.

JEFFRIES - In memory of Frances Jeffries, wife of Alexander Jeffries, Died Sept. 16, 1825.

JEFFRIES - In memory of Alexander Jeffries who departed this life September 14th, 1838 in the 65th year of his age.

JEFFRIES - In memory of Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth E. Jeffries who was born May 31st, 1837 and Died August 13, 1844.

DALE - In memory of Adam Dale, born July 14th, 1768 and Died October 14th, 1851, aged 81 years.

Note: Adam Dale was the father of Alexander Jeffries' second wife, Elizabeth Dale. Elizabeth chose Jeffries as her third husband. After his death she married Robert High (an Alabama legislator) on May 15, 1839. He died in April 1842 and she then married Absalom Brown on March 16, 1846. He died in 1847. She married Willis Routt May 11, 1848 and some time after his death Elizabeth moved to Mississippi and died there. The imposing manor house that stood near the cemetery was Elizabeth's home from the time she married Jeffries until she moved to Mississippi and it is believed that Robert High, Absalom Brown, and Willis Routt are also buried here but if they are they do not have tombstones. The house burned around 1968. The often-married Elizabeth was one of Madison County's most beautiful and colorful characters having even been accused of murder at one time but was acquitted.

Census, Madison County, 1850:

#108 Rout, Willis	(48)	Ky.	Farmer
Elizabeth	(55)	Md.
Dale, Adam	(81)	Md.) Parents of Elizabeth
Mary	(78)	Del.)
Jeffries, William	(16)	Ala.	Student

GRIFFITH CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 34-1-1E - NW NW. On Walker Lane.

This cemetery has long since been destroyed. I was told by neighbors that it had been the Griffith Cemetery but they did not know who was buried there. They did say that at one time there were several stones there and one person remembered the name "Griffith" on one of the stones. This is now a cattle pasture and no stones remain.

Note: There appeared to be three other graves in this cemetery for which I could find no stones. Old maps of Madison County show that a road once passed by this cemetery, however, the road has since changed and is a quarter of a mile away at this time. The cemetery is located approximately 1/4 mile due west of Mint Spring on a cliff overlooking Swamp Branch (creek). It is 2-1/2 miles due south of the Alabama-Tennessee line.

HOWARD CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 26-1-1E. NE SE - In a row of trees on north side of Walker Lane.

There are no stones in this cemetery and I do not know who is buried here. I was told by a neighbor that it was the "old Howard Cemetery" but they could give me no further information. It does, however, have a rather interesting history. A small plane crashed in it a few years ago and at one time bank robbers, being chased by the sheriff, tossed a bag of money in the cemetery; the money was recovered.

 Note: This was Martha J. Bradford who first married a Mr. Lee and later a Walker. A descendant told me the following story about this lady. During the Civil War, when Martha J. was a little girl, the "Yankees" came into Madison County and it was their habit to ride their horses until they gave out then "exchange" them for a fresh mount - with or without the owner's permission. One day Martha was playing in the yard when she looked up to see the Federal army coming over the hill. Her father was working in the fields so she screamed to her mother, or anyone who would listen, "The Yankees are coming and those sonsabitches ain't gonna' get my horse!" Whereupon she raced to the barn, opened the gate and sent the family's beautiful horse galloping into the nearby woods and safety. Feeling rather proud of herself she went back to the house where her mother met her with a hickory switch - not for sending the horse to safety but for the language she used while doing it. (Note: She married George A. Lee Aug. 23, 1875).

HARRIS-SPURLOCK CEMETERY???

LOCATION: Section 3-1-2E. S/2 SE NE - Behind home of Mr. Fanning.

A lifelong resident of this community, Mrs. Effie Simmons Shelton, told me in November, 1973, that she thought this cemetery might be either the Harris Cemetery or the Spurlock Cemetery but she did not know who was buried there. When she was a child she had attended school very near this cemetery and the children often wandered into the cemetery. It has apparently been gone many years.

The 1850 Census shows two Harris families living in that immediate area.

Census, November 12, 1850

CAMPBELL CEMETERY

LOCATION: On Western edge of Hale Mountain. Section 11-1-2E, SE NE NE NE
 (Note: Location is approximate. Mr. Homer Yarbrough took Ann Cochran and I to this cemetery or we would never have found it since it is on the side of the mountain in dense woods. I am most grateful to Mr. Yarbrough and Mrs. Cochran for their help in finding and copying this cemetery.)

CAMPBELL - In Memory of Susanah Campbell, Born March 23rd, 1857, And departed this life July 17, th 1858. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little Child the Same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

CAMPBELL - In Memory of William Barnet Campbell; Son of William Barnet and Mary Campbell, Born Jan. 23rd 1854, Died May 6th 1854. Suffer little children to cum unto me, and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

CENSUS, Nov. 12, 1850

Note: There were 15 unmarked graves in this cemetery which was surrounded on two sides by a rock wall. I was told by a family connection that the first wife, the father, and the mother of George Washington Campbell was buried here. George Washington Campbell was born July 7, 1824 and died Jan. 26, 1919. I am unable to verify this information. Marriage Book 4A shows George W. Campbell -m- Luvisa Ackard March 24, 1849 and then on May 10, 1849 a George W. Campbell -m- Louisa Hambrick, and on March 24, 1853 a George W. Campbell -m- Luticia Akard. Marriage Book 4 shows one George W. Campbell -m- Harriett Stone August 2, 1832. George W. seems to be a popular name in this Campbell family, therefore, I will leave it to the reader to sort it out.

The "X" below represent unmarked graves. The "A" represents the grave of Susanah Campbell and the "B" represents the grave of William Barnet Campbell.

LOCATION: Section 5-1-2E. SW SE NW

This cemetery is several miles from any road and to get to it one must either pack in on a horse, use a trail bike or walk. It was canvassed by Mr. S. O. "Billy" Simmons in April of 1976 who drove a pickup part way and walked the rest. Mr. Simmons gave the information to his sister, Effie Simmons Shelton, who gave it to me. Many thanks to these people for their help.

FANNING CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 13-1-2E - W/2 S/2 NW NE - In Fitch Hollow - Several hundred yards into the woods off the end of Mountain Fork Road.

This cemetery is on the side of a mountain and quite far from the road. I made the long walk back to it only to find a stone-covered grave with no markings or lettering. The grave appeared to be very old. Mr. Sanford R. Fanning of Elora, Tenn. said he didn't know who was buried here but did not think there were any Fannings in this cemetery. I was told by Milton B. Fanning's half brother that Milton B. Fanning and his wife, Laura E. Fanning, have a baby buried there. Milton B. (Jr.) is buried in the Taylor Cemetery (See Page 86) along with his wife.

GRAVEYARD HILL CEMETERY
(New Market, Ala.)

LOCATION: NE corner of Sec. 32 and NW corner of Sec. 33-1-2E. One-half mile due north of New Market, Alabama.

Note: This very old cemetery covers several acres and is in the worst condition of any of the several hundred cemeteries I have canvassed in this county. I literally chopped my way through brush in order to read most of the stones. It was necessary to crawl on hands and knees under fallen trees and piled brush to read many of the stones. Once, when on my stomach crawling under a tree I came face to face with a snake, so if I have overlooked any stones in this cemetery please blame the snake. There were some tombstones I could see but getting to them would have entailed several strong men or machinery to clear the way. Within this cemetery the Miller Plot and Criner Plot were in the best condition and did not have to be entered at risk of life and limb.

Mr. Jones, Larry Wayne's father, gave me this information. At his grandfather's funeral Larry Wayne said, "I'll see you in a couple of weeks, Grandpa." Two weeks and two days later Larry Wayne was killed in an accident. At the time I met the Jones family there was no marker at Larry Wayne's grave, however, the information was supplied by his father.

NORRIS-LYLE CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 4-2-2E - NE SW SE SE) In field off Frank Hereford Rd. approx. 2 city blocks west ) point where Frank Hereford Road jogs east.

This small family cemetery is located in the back yard of a very old home that is vacant and falling in. The home was originally built of logs that appeared to be hand-hewn, with additions made to the house in later years. An 1875 map of Madison County showed this place as being owned by a Powers at the time. A newspaper, dated in 1948, had been tacked onto one of the walls of the house as insulation which indicated its occupancy after that time. The logs in this home were large and straight. This is one of the log homes in this county, in my opinion, that should be saved.

LYLE - Little Sadie, daughter of J. C. & Alice Lyle, born October 6, 1893, died May 14, 1897.
 Our darling one hath gone before to greet us on the blissful shore.

CAMPBELL - Frances Campbell 1876, age 9 months. (Stone broken and part of it is gone)

NORRIS - Fannie C., Daughter of W. J. and N. J. Norris (stone broken and part of it is gone)

NORRIS - Two little infants of W. J. & N. J. Norris. Budded on earth to bloom in Heaven

I was told that a man was buried here by the name of Anthony.

There is an Edy Anthony listed in the 1830 Census and if that was Mr. Anthony's wife he died before that time. When I canvassed this cemetery in 1970 there was an unmarked grave (that of Mr. Anthony) surrounded by a cedar fence but when I went back in 1977 the fence was gone and the cemetery was terribly overgrown.

OLD UNION GROVE CHURCHYARD CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 3-3-2E. SE SE NE. Off County Lake Road. This cemetery is shown as the "Union Cemetery" on the TVA maps. The west half of this cemetery is a Negro cemetery. The east half is the old Union Grove Churchyard cemetery and only white people are buried there. The old churchyard covers approximately two acres, is covered with vinca minor, and probably has 200 unmarked graves in it. It is located on the very edge of Madison County Lake.

The Giles family plot was enclosed by a fence:

GILES - Thomas Giles - 1881 - 1933.

[Note: This hand-made cement marker was in the gateway to the family plot. It may have been taken out of the cemetery by vandals and dropped there.]

GILES - Our Father. Thomas F. Giles. July 25, 1861 - Nov. 18, 1933

GILES - Maria M. Giles, wife of Jos. W. Giles. April 3, 1828 - March 8, 1920. Rest, Mother, rest in quiet sleep, while friends in sorrow o're thee weep.

EATON - Cornelius, son of J. M. & M. A. Eaton - Born & Died Feb. 6, 1881

EATON - Willie P., dau. of J. M. & G. A. S. Eaton - Born Nov. 26, 1875 - Died Aug. 30, 1883.

Note: The following graves were scattered over the rest of the churchyard.

PENCE - T. J. Pence, Died March the 17[?], 1899. (No other information on this hand-carved fieldstone.)

----- In about the center of this cemetery was an ancient cut stone above-ground tomb. It had been torn down by vandals and we could not find any identifying marks. Next to it was another grave marked by unlettered fieldstone.

HALL - J. W. Hall - Born 1852 - Died (Bottom half of this hand-carved fieldstone broken off and missing. Next to this grave is the grave of the child listed next.

----- P 4 1858 (Note: It is anyone's guess what this means. It is a child's grave.)

DALTON - Mary A. Dalton, Wife of G. W. Dalton. Born June 29, 1861 - Died Jan. 27, 1882.

Note: There was evidence of an ancient road running along the side of this tiny family cemetery. The road appeared to run northward toward Lewis Mountain. The cemetery is located in a grove of trees that border the old road and it is so overgrown that it is difficult to search the area. We did locate one unlettered fieldstone marking a grave.

BAYLESS CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 30-2-2E - N/2 NW NW - Behind barn on west side of Winchester Pike approximately at the Winchester Pike and County Lake Road intersection.

Note: When I copied this cemetery this farm was owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Lawler (born 1885). Even though Mr. Lawler was elderly he was spry and his mind was as alert as a youngster's. He was well acquainted with the history of the community, with his farm, and the people buried in the cemetery behind his barn (the Bayless Cemetery). Mr. Lawler was able to supply some information on some of the people buried here and I have included that information.

BAYLESS - T. H. Bayless - Born Dec. 21, 1826 - Died July 9, 1900.

BAYLESS - Martha A. Bayless, Wife of T. H. Bayless. Born March 16, 1832 - Died November 12, 1882. [Mr. Lawler said her maiden name was Smith]

---- At the foot of T. H. Bayless' grave is a large fieldstone marking another grave, that of an unknown woman who took ill on the stage which traveled between Winchester, Tenn. and Huntsville, Ala. Since this was a stage stop for a change of horses, the lady got off the stage and was going to stay at the Bayless home until she recovered, however, she died. This occurred during the Civil War and her son was in the Southern army. After the war the son visited her grave with intentions of erecting a monument but for some reason he did not. The identity of the lady has been forgotten.

NOTE: There is a note in the cemetery records of Pauline Gandrud and Kathleen Jones stating that when they canvassed this cemetery, before 1930, there was a stone of an Armistead child in it plus others which were badly broken. When I visited this graveyard in the winter of 1970 the Armistead stone was not to be found. The above were the only stones left in this cemetery.

McBRIDE CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 34-2S-1E S/2 SE NE.

This cemetery is now on the edge of a man-made lake off Bradford Lane. There are no stones here now. An elderly man who had lived in the community all his life said that at one time there were several tombstones here but since the area has been developed they have all disappeared. I have no idea who is buried here other than they were McBride family members.

McCRARY-WRIGHT CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 26-2-1E. SW SE NE. Located in a grove of old trees. Approximately 1/2 mile due east of Riverton Road and one mile due north of the Three Forks of Flint River.

BOLDEN - Anthony Bolden - Born in 1807 - Died Dec. 20, 1892 } These upright marble markers were } located outside the stone wall that } enclosed the rest of the cemetery.

BOLDEN - Eliza Bolden - Born in 1827 - Died Dec. 23, 1892. }

Note: The following graves were inside a very high stone wall. The wall itself was unique because its height was greater than most cemetery enclosures. One marvels at the weight of each stone block and the labor taken to set them in place. The ends of each stone were carved to fit the contour of the next one to it and the result was not only functional but made the wall a thing of beauty and endurance. A huge limb from an old tree had fallen across the wall, probably the result of a severe windstorm, and torn many of the stone blocks to the ground. The limb was later removed and the wall restored.

McCRARY - To the Memory of Thomas McCrary, Born Jan. 17, 1789, Departed this life August 31, 1865.

WRIGHT - In Memory of Adeline Eugene Wright who was Born April 13th 1822, Departed this Life September 8th 1835.

Note: The Wrights and McCrarys were two of Madison County's earliest pioneer families and owned adjoining plantations; their family histories are closely interwoven.

---- "M. Y. W." Note: This appeared to be a footstone with these initials carved thereon. We could not locate a matching headstone but it is quite possible that it is buried under many years' accumulation of leaves. It possibly marked the grave of a Wright or a Wyche.

WYCHE - Henry C. Wyche - Born August 26, 1826 - Departed this life April 19, 1853. [Note: This is Henry Chambers Wyche who is a brother to Lucinda Wyche]

WYCHE - Lucinda Wyche - Born Jan'y. 30, 1803 - Died June 11, 1850.

Note: Mrs. Glen D. Estes (Nee Mary Wyche) and I visited this cemetery in July, 1969. Lucinda Wyche was her great-great-grandmother and we were delighted to find the stones legible after so many years of weathering. The two Wyche graves were box tombs but even though the lids had fallen from place we were able to maneuver them 'so they could be read easily.

SANDIDGE - My Daughter, the first pledge of youthful affection, Kathleen I. Sandidge, Born Dec. 18th 1835, Obit July 15th 1837. By the Mother.

SHACKELFORD - The the Memory of Thomas Shackelford who was born August 23rd 1810,
 Departed this life July 31st 1820.

NOTE: Outside the stone wall are many unmarked graves. They are the graves of the McCrary and Wright slaves and their decendants.

At one time the stone wall carried the following inscription: "The earth within these walls is dedicated to the dead therein."

UNKNOWN CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 5-2-1E - NE NW NW. On the property of the Helton Ranch (Jerry Helton, owner) is a large cemetery with no markers. The cemetery is on Walker Lane and covers approximately one acre. It is terribly overgrown and has many, many "sinks." Mr. Helton said he had no idea who was buried there or even whether the cemetery was Negro or white. Mr. Helton speculated that it might be the slave graveyard of the Walker family.

A little over a quarter of a mile south of the driveway leading to the Townsend Cemetery, above, is a historical marker which reads:

"Near here lived John Williams Walker (1783-1823) President of Alabama's First Constitutional Convention, 1819, and Alabama's First U. S. Senator, 1819-22. Walker County in Northwest Alabama, created 1823, was named in his honor. Four of his sons, Percy Walker, John James Walker, LeRoy Pope Walker, and Richard Wilde Walker were prominent in Alabama politics."

Mr. Helton's land and the cemetery plot was at one time owned by the Walkers and Walker Lane was named after them.

Note: There were several unmarked graves in this large plot and several graves marked with unlettered fieldstones. This cemetery has been sadly neglected for many years and all the box tombs have fallen in. The inscriptions are on the lids and are becoming so weathered they will be impossible to read in a few years. This cemetery lies at the edge of a thick forest and is overgrown so as to resemble a jungle.

J. Richard Cavett entered and settled this property in 1809 as one of Madison County's first pioneer settlers.

It is interesting to note that on September 28, 1808, in Tazewell County, Va., there is a record of A Power of Attorney from Richard Cavet to John Peery and Thomas Perry which was proven, in part, by the oaths of John Pruiett, Jr. and John Crockett. On August 7, 1816, in Madison County, Alabama, Nancy Cavett married William W. Pruettt.[Marriage Book I.]

The following are the only Cavetts listed in the Madison County 1850 Census:

STRONG CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 6-2-1E - C. E/2 NW/4. In the valley a quarter of a mile east of the big curve in Meridian Pike before it meets with Highway 231-431 north of Huntsville.

At the entrance to this cemetery is a cement slab on which is the name "J. P. Strong."

Stuart?], a widow, whom he married Oct. 15, 1835. Sally Booth Strong was born Nov. 23, 1798 and died sometime before 1835.]

STRONG - Hopson Strong. [Note: this marker was illegible. This is Hopson Strong, the son of George Strong and Mary "Polly" East, who was born Jan. 27, 1801 and died Oct. 9, 1835. George Strong was the son of Nathan Strong and Caty Callahan; Mary "Polly" was the daughter of Benjamin East and Nancy Pruitt.]

NOTE: I was told by Lucille (Lula) Strong Powell, whose family cemetery this is, that Pleasant Strong was buried in this cemetery without a headstone. Also that Mary "Polly" East was buried here without a headstone. If Polly East is buried here then I expect her husband, George Strong, is also buried here.

GROSS SCRUGGS CEMETERY

LOCATION: Somewhere in Section 15-3-1E, probably in the east half of the section.

In the 1930's Virgil Carrington ("Pat") Jones wrote some articles for The Huntsville Times on various interesting homes throughout the county. One of the homes he wrote about was the Gross Scruggs home. In the article he mentions the family cemetery:

"Upon parting the growth at the edge [of a clump of Sassafras bushes] one looks in over a decayed brick wall upon the final resting place of many of the Scruggses. Thick undergrowth has marred all traces of graves. Stone slabs, devoid of inscription, lie piled together and alone among the leaves. Rabbits and other small animals seek the copse [of trees] as a spot unfrequented by humanity."

Gross Scruggs was born in Bedford County, Va., Jan. 5, 1772. He first married Nancy Logwood May 31, 1792 and had seven children: Thomas, William, Gross Jr., Edmund L., Ann H., Mary F., and Martha (Patsy). His wife died April 2, 1805. He married second to Mary Tate in Bedford Co. on Oct. 17, 1805 and moved to Rutherford Co., Tenn. On July 29, 1812 he bought the NE/4 and SE/4 of Sec. 15-3-1E in Madison Co., Ala. On June 2, 1817 he bought the west half of the section thereby owning all of Section 15. By his second wife, Mary Tate, he had 12 children: Elizabeth, Emily, Sarah, William, Julia, Pamela, Sophia, John Waddy, James Henry, Margaret, Frances, Harriett, and Eloise which brought his total to 19 children. Mary Tate Scruggs (his 2nd wife) died on Sept. 19, 1832 at Sulphur Springs, Va. at the age of 49. Scruggs then married Mary Saunders, widow of William Jones; after her death he married Edith, widow of Reuben Shotwell. No children were born to these last two marriages. Gross Scruggs died in 1856 at the age of 95 years.

[Note: Family information given here is from the article by "Pat" Jones written for The Huntsville Times.]

Note: I have looked repeatedly for the cemetery described above but was unable to locate it.

R(E)IGNEY CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 6-3-2E - NE SE NE; almost 3/4 mile east and 1/4 mile north of Bellview Cemetery

NOTE: This old cemetery was surrounded by a fence at one time but now only the posts are standing. Outside the fence are the remains of at least three above-ground cut-stone box tombs that are probably a lot older than the tombstones listed here. I could find no identification on any of them. There also appeared to be many "sinks" outside the fence which may have been the graves of slaves. The entire area was covered with vinca minor and is nestled among lofty trees. Please note that two spellings (Rigney and Reigney) are used here.

NOTE: The stones in this cemetery are, for the most part, badly broken and scattered. The only ones left standing are those of Virginia and W. E. Payne, Lucy A. Reigney, and John and Katharine Rigney. The rest had to be dug out of the ground (mostly in pieces). Near the grave of Katharine Rigney is the grave of a young person marked with unlettered fieldstones.

The large log structure built as a home by Andrew Monroe Sublett is still being lived in by one of his descendants, Mr. William Brooks Sublett. The cemetery is about 3/4 mile from the house which is most unusual; family cemeteries were normally located only a few yards from the house.

VINSON CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 33-3-2E - N/2 NE SE

This large cemetery contains many, many graves but I could find only a few markers. In Deed Book I-J, Page 451, on Feb. 7, 1825, David and Martha Walker sold the SE/4 of Section 33-3-2E to William Moore. They "excepted" "the meeting house and one quarter acre around the meeting house and the graveyard thereon." The land sold was bounded by Owens on the north, by Woodson Rountree on the west, by Taylor on the South and by Mahan on the East. I have been unable to find what kind of church was here. Mr. Joe Allen Brewer, a Vinson descendant, took me to this cemetery. The cemetery is in a large copse of trees and covers approximately two acres.

DOUGLASS - Bill Douglas - 1872 - 1932 (This was a hand made cement marker)

GEE - Permelie Gee - Born June 12, 1840 - Died Aug. 3, 1894. (tiny marble marker)

VINSON - Caldonia Vinson, Born Dec. 25, 1810 - Died Apr. 1, 1901. (Marble upright stone)

ROBNETT - Millie A. Robnett - Born June 13, 1830 - Died Jan. 18, 1910 (Marble stone)

ANDERSON - J. R. Anderson - Born Feb. 19, 1870 - Died Nov. 23, 1890 [We dug this marble stone out of the ground and left it leanded next to a tree.]

ANDERSON - W. T. A. [Note: This was a footstone and was next to the grave of J. R. Anderson. We were able to locate the base and bottom half of what we believed was the matching headstone. Only part of the death date was left: "(Died) March 16, 18...." We could not locate the rest of the stone.]

This cemetery is literally covered with graves either unmarked or marked with unlettered fieldstones. The following two inscriptions were crudely carved on fieldstones.

STOGSDALE CEMETERY

LOCATION: Probably in the NW/4 of Sec. 19-1-2E. I foolishly did not take my map when I walked to this cemetery and am, therefore, guessing. I was taken to this cemetery by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bice.

Note: This was the only stone left but family descendants tell me that James H. Stogsdale's wife and daughter are buried here also. That would be Eleanor ("Ellen") M. CHAMBLESS-BYRNE
(Flint Baptist Church)

LOCATION: Section 17-3-2E - E/2 E/2 NW SW. This very old cemetery is located 1/4 mile north of the present Flint River Primitive Baptist Church west of Maysville, Ala. It is located on a tree-covered hill top.

A lady living very near this cemetery pointed out a spot near the cemetery on which she said had stood the first Methodist Church in Madison County. She was in error about the denomination as it was a Baptist Church, not Methodist. In his "A History of Methodism in Alabama" [published in 1893] the Rev. Anson West, D. D. says "The Baptists were there equally early. They were there at the beginning of things, and they were strong and numerous for the number of inhabitants in the county at the time. On Flint River, North-east of Hunt's Spring, at the house of James Deaton, October 2, 1808, they constituted a Church with eleven or twelve members, which Church they named Flint River. This was the first Baptist Church in the county."

Countless graves are scattered all over this hill and most of them are unmarked or marked with unlettered fieldstones.

FLINT RIVER PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

LOCATION: W/2 SE/4 SW/4 Section 17-3-2E. Approx. 1/4 mile north off Maysville Road on east bank of Flint River and about 1/2 mile west of Maysville. This cemetery is about 1/4 mile south of the above Chambless-Byrne Cemetery.

In this churchyard are two cedar trees surrounded by a wood rail fence that has been reinforced with wire fencing. The fence appears to enclose two graves that are covered with vinca minor. I do not know who is buried here. On the church is a sign that says "Rebuilt in 1973."

From: The Huntsville Mercury, August 24, 1891.

"We learned last evening of the death yesterday of Mr. Alfred Hambrick at his home near Maysville. Mr. Hambrick was 78 years of age and had been ill of slow fever for some time. He was buried in the burying ground of that place today."

STRINGFIELD CEMETERY

LOCATION: Unknown

Rev. Anson West, in his "A History of Methodism in Alabama" makes mention of the Stringfield family as follows: [Page 110]

"In the year 1808, Joshua Boucher, with his young family, and John Stringfield, with his wife and children, moved to that territory, which was that very year organized into a county, and named Madison. Mr. Boucher had joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kentucky in 1806, and was a zealous Christian. Mr. Stringfield and his wife, Sarah, and his son, Thomas, who was twelve years old when they came to this section, had all joined the Methodist Episcopal Church previous to their coming to their new abode, and they were all pious. John Stringfield and his wife both died in this county, Mr. Stringfield in 1822, and his wife in 1828."

DANIEL THOMPSON CEMETERY

LOCATION: Unknown

On the same page as he mentions the Stringfield family, above, Rev. West further states:

"In 1809, Daniel Thompson, a local preacher of great popularity, and a professional teacher of rare attainments and of profound scholarship, came to Madison County. He died in the county at an advanced age, and was buried at Beech Grove Church, near the State line."

I have been unable to determine the location of Beech Grove Church. It is no longer in existence and I have located no reference to it.

DERRICK CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 21-3-2E - In the SW/4

In Deed Book "Q" on Page 91, dated Aug. 11, 1836, Caswell B. and Susannah Derrick deed land to Simeon Derrick and Richard Bowhannan, as commissioners, as follows: "one half acre of land for a public burying ground being part of the southwest quarter on the Section line in Section 21, Township 3, Range 2 East so as to include all the graves that is at that place."

I talked to Mr. Will Johnson who lived across the road from this quarter section of land in May, 1977. Mr. Johnson was born (according to his daughter) April 21, 1878 but he said he was nearly 102 years old. His mind was as alert as most teenagers' and he said he knew of no white cemetery on that land. He did point out a Negro cemetery on the quarter section. Possibly it was originally a white cemetery that Negroes used after many years of non-use by whites (a common practice). That cemetery, however, was located next to the half-section line, not the section line, in the approximate E/2 E/2 E/2 of the SW/4 in a grove of trees. This quarter section of land is edged by the road to Brownsboro and to Gurley, Ala., and is probably a very old road. Reason tells me they would have buried people on or near the road which makes me question whether the above Negro cemetery was originally white since it is about a half mile from this road. I have no way of knowing who is buried in the white cemetery nor the exact location of it.

LYNN CEMETERY

LOCATION: Unknown

Benjamin Lynn and his wife, Hannah (Nee Severns or Sovereigns) moved to Madison County, Alabama, in 1810. They lived with their daughter and son-in-law (John Chisholm [Chism] and Ester (Lynn) Chisholm. John Chisholm owned the SW/4 of Section 30-2-1E and it is possible that Benjamin and Hannah are buried there. Meridian Pike edges this property on the west and businesses have grown up along the highway [now Highway 231/431].

According to The Filson Club History Quarterly, Volume 20, Page 156, Lynn "organized a Christian Church near Huntsville, and it was in the churchyard there that he was buried in December, 1814, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. His wife had died in the preceeding May." Benjamin Lynn married Hannah Severns July 9, 1777.

Note: There were four rows in which I was able to count eleven unmarked graves or graves marked only with unlettered fieldstones. Nine of these graves were childrens' graves and two were adults. One of the adult's graves had the following scratched on a fieldstone:

May 1, '99

This is undoubtedly a death date and I was unable to determine who was buried there. Since the Madison County death records for that year are missing I was unable to correlate that date with a name.

SHARP CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 36-2-2E - S/2 NW SE - In Sharps Cove on the edge of the wagon road that leads back to the Sharp Cemetery in the NW/4 (below).

SHARP - In Memory of Martha Sharp - Died September the 20th 1849 Age 80 Years.

Note: There were many unmarked graves here and graves marked with unlettered fieldstones. I have no knowledge as to who else is buried here. Mr. J. V. Salters owns this property now (1977) and was told by Sharp family members that the above Martha Sharp lived in a cave when she and her family first settled this valley. Scott's cave is a few hundred yards from the cemetery.

SHARP CEMETERY

LOCATION: Section 36-2-2E - SW NW NW. On the west edge of Sharps Sinks which is far from any road.

There are five graves here. Four of them are Sharps. The fifth is a man, according to legend, the Sharps found dead on the mountain and whose identity they did not know. According to Mr. Salters, the present land owner, the body was found "about a hundred years ago." Mr. Salters did not know which Sharp family members occupied the other four graves. There are no tombstones there.
