Obituary, The Gurley Herald of Thurs. July 21 [6th?], 1904:

"We were sad indeed to hear of the death of our old friend Bro. J. C. Hunkapilla, who died at his home near New Hope last Saturday. Weep not dear friends for it is only a summons from the Master to come up higher and receive the reward for his labor here. He was surely a man of God, one whom all who knew him honored and loved him. We extend our deepest sympathy with his aged wife and children. May they all live so that the separation will only be for a while until God sees fit to unite them in an unbroken family in Heaven." Note: Name was spelled Hunkapilla.

Probate File No. 6453 of John C. Hunkapiller show his widow, Celestine who m. a Prince and moved to Oleander, Al; and three children: Rhonie Hunkapiller Black (res. at Somerville in Morgan Co.)
