Nichols. James Nichols. Born Sept. 28 A. D., 1804 – Died Nov. 23 A. D., 1877. Father.

Dilworth. George Dilworth[’s] wife Nancy. 1789 – 1858. [Note: A bronze plaque set in cement at the foot of this grave states as follows: “George Dilworth Wife Nancy. First Dilworth to Settle in Madison County. U. S. Land Grant 1809.”] Editor’s note: Both dates must be questioned. The 1850 and 1860 censuses show Nancy alive and well and born in NC in 1798-9. She could not have died in 1858 and still be on the 1860 census.

Dilworth. Robert Eason, son of J. D. & Lou Dilworth. Born & Died 1881.

Dilworth. Nannie Louise, wife of John D. Dilworth. 1857 – 1883. [Note: A bronze plaque set in cement at the foot of this grave reads as follows: “Lou Clark Dilworth, 1857 – 1883. To Honor & Commorate the Pioneer Dilworths Buried in this Cemetery, 1800 – 1860.”]

Ed. Note: The date “1800” must be questioned; however, it is possible the progenitor, George Dilworth, did live among the Indians prior to the Treaty allowing settlers to purchase Indian land. He is listed on the 1809 Squatter Census.

Note: The following five stones are identical:

Dilworth. Walter Clemmonds, Son of J. D. & Lou Dilworth. Born July 1, 1883 – Died July 30, 1883.
