

Green Valley Cemetery
(Edward Han Vann)

This cemetery was originally the Edward Han Vann Cemetery which included members of his family. This large cemetery is on a hill and extends down the hill to the road. At the top of the hill is a copse of trees under which there are no markers. It is believed that Edward H. Vann and some of his family members are buried here including his wife, Elizabeth Brazelton. They were married 29 June 1825 in Madison County, Al. Edward Han was born to Thomas and Ann Vann in 1793 in North Carolina. According to his probate file (No. 2124) he died in Madison County in 1857. The 1850 Census shows this family as follows:

Vann, Edward H.	57 (1793)	NC	Farmer - $1600.
Elisabeth	49 (1806)	SC
Marthy C.	16 (1834)	Al	m. Ginnett A. Moring 20 April 1854
Elazarus H. L.	14 (1836)	Al	m. Frances G. Vann 31 Dec 1857
Margaret E. J.	11 (1839)	Al

The following records are from the late Roy Maynad, a Vann descendant.

Callie Blackburn Rice Feb. 8. 1866 Feb. 6. 1930	Sally C. Vann Apr. 24, 1838 Nov. 6, 1916	Rest Mother rest in quiet sleep While Friends in sorrow over thee weep Annie Aderhalt 1883 – 1953
---	--	--

Benjamin Glover

Source: From an article in the Huntsville Times of Wed., Jan. 10, 2001:

“Members of the Tennessee Valley Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution and Heroes of Kings Mountain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, braved drizzling rain on Nov. 4, to honor the memory and mark the grave of Revolutionary War soldier Benjamin Glover.

“The two groups held a grave marking ceremony at the Green Valley Cemetery in Owens Cross Roads. Ernie Ritch, president of the SAR chapter, presided. Other organizations participating were the ALSAR Color Guard and American Legion Post 237.

“Among those taking part in the ceremony were the Rev. Henry Tuttle, David Milam Roy Maynard, Oscar Glover, Jim Alexander, Hoyt Smith, Charlene Pace and Eloise Shannon.

“Guests included SAR members Ron Hildrith, Alabama state president, Ed Whorden, Alabama state secretary, and Jim Maples, Alabama state treasurer, and from the state DAR organization, Renee Pruitt, commemorative events chairwoman.

“Other DAR chapters represented at the event were Twickenham Town, Tidence Lane, Hunts Spring and Huntsville.”

Copied by Dorothy Scott Johnson in 1990’s.

Katherine Atchley Feb. 3, 1938 July 1, 1967 and Charles Atchley	March 17, 1934 (blank) Lewis Thomas Bell (Jackie) Jr.	July 24, 1937 Jan. 19, 1965 Footstone: Jackie. Gone but not forgotten.
--	--	---