

Logan-Campbell Cemetery

Logan-Campbell Cemetery

Location: Section 33-5-1E. South half of section. Off Atkins Road and Norton Road just east of the main gate to the Norton plant.

This cemetery was copied and contributed by Albert Logan Campbell, Jr. of North Little Rock, Arkansas, in about 1987 or 1988. The notes on family are from him. Mr. Campbell found six stones in an area approximately 50 x 150 feet that was very grown up with briars, weeds, etc." They were:

Callie Bolden

Mar. 28, 1899

Dec. 16, 1959

Shares stone with George.

George Bolden

Oct. 12, 1899

(no death date)

Norma Bolden

May ...

Jan. 30, ...

*This was a small stone
(child's?) that was illegible.*

The above two stones were in a 12 feet square fenced area on the western end of the area and about 25 feet due east of the chain-link gate of the Norton plant's main entrance.

To the east of the above graves Mr. Campbell found a wrought iron fence containing possibly two plots with a black metal marker with white lettering. [Probably a funeral marker. The inscriptions were:]

Martha Dale Cenie Harren

Born Jan. 29, 1892

Died April 13, 1928

Three other markers were Mr. Campbell's family members:

In Memory of

John Logan

Died May 18, 1838

Aged 56 years

"Much has he read

Much has he sought

Yet see how it has all

Come to naught"

The John Logan stone was a concrete marker that was crumbling at the base

Abner L. Logan

Born Sept. 1, 1821

Died Dec. 8, 1886

Death is the crown of life.

Fannie L. Morris

Born Feb. 11, 1837

Died April 7, 1914

She basks in the sunshine of God's presence.

[Stone sits on a base marked "Morris." ]

Mr. Campbell states there were several "sinks" [sunken graves] marked with flat rocks standing on end. Family records indicate several family members are buried here (apparently without markers) and they are:

Davis G. Campbell

Born 17 April 1857 – Died 7 Oct. 1905

Norman C. Campbell

Born 31 Dec. 1879 – died young, unmarried.

John W. Campbell

Born 5 Jan 1832 – died 22 April 1911

Sarah E. Moore Campbell

Born 26 Nov 1836 – died 14 Feb 1919

Mary S. Campbell Logan

Born 12 Nov 1830 – died 9 April 1907

About a mile due north (just north of the Huntsville Speedway) is the Campbell Cemetery which family records indicate was in the family garden. It is the resting place of Thomas Gardiner Campbell, born 1799 in Rockbridge Co., Va. and died 5 Dec. 1839. Also his youngest son, Thomas G. Campbell [Jr.], born 30 Jan. 1839 and died 25 May 1846.

Mr. Campbell further states there were no markers in the Campbell portion of the cemetery, only stones turned on end, inside a wooded 35 feet square in a pasture.
