

Stewart-Hunkapiller and Scott Cemeteries

Stewart-Hunkapiller Cemetery

Location: Sec. 12-6-1E. NE NW SE SE

Alvie Lemley took me to this cemetery in a four-wheel drive vehicle.

We counted twelve graves in this cemetery but only two had tombstones. The rest were marked with unlettered fieldstones.

Charles W. Stewart

Born

July 1, 1863

Died

Feb. 11, 1902

Through all pain, at times he'd smile a smile of heavenly birth,

and when the Angels called him home,
he smiled farewell to earth.

Note: Charles W. Stewart is the son of Chapman Stewart and his wife, Catharine A. Harrison.

Robert M. Hunkapiller

Aug. 25, 1887

Sept. 2, 1952

---

Scott Cemetery

Location: Section 11-4-2E. Approximately in center of section on Gurley Mountain. This cemetery is a long distance off the main road and can be reached only by walking. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Haislip took me to this cemetery on 9 March 1985.

The following was a four feet tall sandstone obelisk. It is copied here exactly as it appears on the stone:

IN MEMO OF T R. THE SON OF
J W & M A SCOT
T DEP. THIS L
IFE NOV. 2. 1855
AGE 2. YEA & 3 M.
OTHS

Translation:
In memory of
T. R., the son of
J. W. & M. A. Scott
Departed this life
Nov. 2, 1855
Age 2 years & 3 months

Note: The Southern Advocate of 28 Nov 1855 reported that Thomas Reuben, son of John W. and Margaret Scott, died on Nov. 2nd aged 2 years, 2 months, 2 days.