“Daddy, we are so lonely without you.”

Source: 1907 Confederate Census: Entered service in 1846 at Owens Cross Roads, Madison Co. Ala. He entered as a private on or about 1863 at Gurley in Co. G., in Milas E. Johnson’s Battalion and continued until he surrendered at Huntsville in 1865 at the close of the war. His wife, Mollie Cobb, was the only wife he had and they were married about 1875.

“Suffer little children to come unto me.”

Lytle H. Cobb

Born March 3, 1884

Died September 4, 1885

Note: Death records show that Hermon Cobb died Sept. 4, 1885 aged 1 yr., 5 mo. of croup. I believe “Lytle” might be “little” and this should read “little Hermon.”
