

The differences between the slave name lists not only indicates that more slaves were born into the estate, but apparently some more were added by other means. Some of those not named in the 1844 list may have died and been buried in the Landman Cemetery II, 34-2. When the heirs sold the land out of Landman hands, the only cemetery that they reserved from sale was the Landman Cemetery I, 34-1, as shown in the deed below:

Madison County AL Deed Book RR, page 471: Charles W. Strong & Mattison O. H. Strong to Thomas C. Barclay, S21-T4-R1W, 1871.
