

LANDMAN CEMETERY II, 34 – 2

Summary Report

Landman Cemetery II (34-2), Redstone Arsenal, Madison County, Alabama, July 2002.

This cemetery has no tombstones. It is located in the NW/4 of S21-T4-R1W, within about a quarter mile to the northeast of Landman Cemetery I, 34-1. It is believed to be a cemetery that was used for the slaves of William Landman, who died in 1829, after leaving a will to regarding his estate.

Landman Cemetery II (34-2), Redstone Arsenal, Madison County, Alabama, July 2002.

The cemetery is well maintained by the Army's groundskeeping contractor. It has a peaceful quietness, with very little traffic on the nearby streets.

The Executor of William's will, charged with carrying out a fair division of his estate, was his son James Landman:

PETITION TO SELL LAND AND SLAVES (of William Landman, deceased -1829)

STATE OF ALABAMA
MADISON COUNTY

PROBATE COURT OF SAID COUNTY.

The Petition of James Landman, Executor of William Landman dec'd respectfully represents unto Your Honor that all the claims against the estate of the said decedent have been paid.

Your petitioner further represents that the heirs of said decedent are his seven children, to-wit:

- 1) Your petitioner, James Landman, who is a resident of said County and State.
- 2) William Landman who was a resident of said County and State, now deceased.
- 3) Samuel Landman who resides in the County of Lauderdale in said State.
- 4) Betsy Landman, who has intermarried with George Simmons and who resides in Lauderdale County in said State.
- 5) Francis Landman who has intermarried with Abram H. Sibley, and who resided in said County and State now deceased.
- 6) Perlina Landman who has intermarried with Joshua H. Beadle, and who resides in said County and State.
- 7) George Landman who was a resident of said County and State now deceased.

Your petitioner further states, that the lands of said decedent, consists of the following described parcels, viz:

The NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec 21 T 4 R 1 W. and the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec 21 T 4 R 1 West, containing in all two hundred and forty acres more or less.

Your petitioner further states that the slaves belonging to said decedent, consist of the following nine in number viz: Jordan, Lucy, Caledonia and her two children Mary and Little Sally Harriett, Egbert, Little Jordan and Wesley.

Your petitioner further states, that the said decedent divided said lands and slaves jointly to his said devisees, but did not ascertain in his will, the respective shares of his said devisees in any such manner as that the same can now be designated, or be set apart and allotted to them, and that while it is not in conflict with the provisions of said will to sell said lands, or any of them for the purpose of distribution, yet said will gives and slaves no power for any sale thereof for such purpose.

Your petitioner therefore states that the interest of all persons concerned in said lands and slaves will be best promoted by a sale thereof and a distribution of the proceeds among said heirs according to their several rights.

Wherefore your Petitioner prays your Honor to authorize him to sell said lands and slaves for the purpose of making a division of said estate, among said heirs, according to the statute in such cases made and that such proceedings orders and decrees may be had and made in the premises as may be sufficient to effectuate such sale, for said purpose according to law.

(This paper is the only paper found in the envelope in the files here in Madison County, Alabama. The other records were taken from the ~~Orphans~~ Court Record and Probate Court Record Books)

The petition of James Landman to sell the slaves in order to achieve an equitable and fair distribution must have been favored by the court, because the sale did occur in 1844, as shown below:

It can be seen that the original list of William Landman's nine slaves does not closely match to the 1844 list of those sold. Only the slave named Lucy was on both lists, and in the later list she had two children that were not named in the previous listing. The statement of “No Amount” for the 1844 sale of Jacob and Ann to Elizabeth Simmons may indicate that they were elderly and that Elizabeth was simply taking them to provide a home to the end of their days.

The 1830 slave census for James Landman shows that he had 9 slaves, and these were probably the 9 slaves listed as having belonged to James’ father William in 1829. However, the “petition to sell” listed the slaves by name, indicating that there were 4 males and 5 females. The 1830 census (showing the slaves under the ownership of James Landman, as Executor of the will of William Landman) shows 5 females and 4 males:

1830 Madison County AL census Slaves of Lan(d)man, Fennell, Moore

The differences between the slave name lists not only indicates that more slaves were born into the estate, but apparently some more were added by other means. Some of those not named in the 1844 list may have died and been buried in the Landman Cemetery II, 34-2. When the heirs sold the land out of Landman hands, the only cemetery that they reserved from sale was the Landman Cemetery I, 34-1, as shown in the deed below:

Through time, the heirs of William Landman sold his land holdings, as well as his slaves, until after they were emancipated. The INDEX TO LANDS prepared by G. W. Jones & Sons, Inc., shows the transitions of land ownership for S21-T4-R1W through the 1800s.

The Landman surname is somewhat “lost” in the INDEX due to the fact that so many of William’s heirs were daughters, who married and took their husbands’ surnames. A key to the surnames and geographical dispersion of the female heirs after marriages is also seen in the later records, from the 1917 deed below:

Other than conjecture based upon the named slaves in the 1829 - 1844 estate papers of William Landman, it cannot be proven which slaves were buried in the Landman Cemetery II, 34-2. Even those whose names were dropped from the 1844 list may not be buried here. They may have been moved away with the heirs to other counties and states, to be buried in new locations. So far as is known, this little cemetery was not used for burials after the Civil War and slave emancipation, but even that is conjecture.
