

The 1860 census showed Richard and his family living in Morgan County, at Valhermosa Springs, even though the owned extensive lands and slaves in Madison County.