

Love would likely be a child of Mary and Claudie Lightford. If so, they may all be buried together in the Fennil / Fennell Cemetery.

There are many records of land transactions involving the Love family on the land that became arsenal property. They are photographed and put on the CD-ROM provided to the Army offices. Some of the more interesting points about the family are that Moses Love (Jr.) was a trustee of the Center Grove Methodist Episcopal Church in 1943 and swore in 1941 about Adie Jacobs' ownership of Nancy T. Graham's old land, stating that he had not moved for 60 years.
