

William. Still, it suggests that Isaac Jacobs could be a younger brother of Cornelia, since it is often observed that in those times a couple would live adjacent to the close relatives of the wife. Furthermore, in this case, there is a Simpson family on each side of the residence of Isaac Jacobs and his wife Bittie.

The 1910 census showed no Elle or Ellie Jacobs, but it did have Ella Jacobs as a male head of household #274 in Enumeration District 145, Sheet 19-B. This E.D. was in the West Huntsville Precinct 24, Merrimack Village. Ella Jacobs was shown as age 24 in 1910, with wife Paralee. She was given as age 20, and they are shown as being married for 3 years, with two children, both still living. In fact, the children are listed in the household as Sylvia (age 1) and Babie (a son, age 3 months).
