The 1920 census recorded both Joe and Cilla as age 46. Cilla should have been shown as age 36, but often specific data (especially for the non-white families) was somewhat haphazardly documented. In any event, there is no doubt that this is the correct family listing for the person buried in the Fennil / Fennell Cemetery. More information was gained by going back through the census years. The 1910 census shows the same family with different details:
