

Green Grove Cemetery, Redstone Arsenal, Madison Co. AL, March 11, 2003
Old metal post near entrance gate; tombstone to left of top of post, in background

The post may have been an old sign post to hold the name of the cemetery. It does not appear to be substantial enough to have been a gate post, and there was no evidence of an internal fence in this area of within the cemetery.
