

To the Hon. John C. Thompson, Judge of the Superior Court of Madison County in the State of Alabama.

The undersigned, Administrator of the said decedent, the goods, real, chattel, rights and credits which were of John R. Inman, late of said County, Alabama, reports that the estate of said decedent is insolvent that the debts due from said estate amount to a sum greatly over and above the means of payment as may be from the following statements of said debts in front and of the debts in the hands of said Administrator, to wit,

Claims against said estate in favor of	Shadrack Inman	791.75
" " " "	Wm. C. Inman	110.00
" " " "	Walker J. Inman	17.00
" " " "	John Inman	10.00
" " " "	Bryant Cobb	22.75
" " " "	J. C. Johnson	55.50
" " " "	John Inman	42.00
		$377.00

Under other claims said estate is not indebted to take a remedy as is available. The further information that he has no means of payment as set forth the proceeds of the sale of the personal property belonging to said decedent's estate in account of which he has advanced to your Honor Court and which amount as well as he was indebted to about

$55.75

$127.25

from which it will appear that the estate is insolvent (and which are not set that out) and the means of payment by about one hundred and thirty seven dollars and twenty five cents. All of which is respectfully reported.

3rd Oct 1837

John C. Inman
 Adm.

John C. Inman, Administrator of the Estate of John R. Inman, late of said County, Madison County, Ala.

Note especially on this listing of those with “claims against the said estate in favor of...” Included Shadrack Inman, Jas. Inman, Walker J. Inman, Bryant Cobb, Jno. C. Johnson, and others known to have been living in the New Hope area of Madison County in the 1830s. Shadrach Inman, in particular appears in the family genealogies that tie this family to the Inman