

wealthy, judging from the size of his tombstone (shown below for reference). His family tombstones were moved from the airport location to the old city cemetery in the town of Madison in the 1984 when the airport was being constructed.

Holding family markers moved to old section Madison City Cem in 1984