

Death Certificate from Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville (Madison County), AL

CERTIFICATE OF DEATH
FORM NO. 2

1. Full name of deceased John Hertzler
(Do not fail to give full name)

2. Date of death: Month Jan; day 3rd; 1913; Hour: _____ A. M. _____ P. M.

3. Place of death (county) Madison Co; beat Madison

4. City or town Madison; ward _____; street and No. _____

5. Place of birth of deceased (state or county) Penn

6. White ~~or colored?~~ _____ Male ~~or female?~~ _____ Occupation Farmer

7. How long did deceased reside at place of death? _____

8. Where was disease contracted? _____ Duration of illness _____

9. Principal disease causing death Tuberculosis

10. Contributory disease causing death _____

11. If homicidal, suicidal, or accidental, state definitely how accomplished _____

12. Did deceased undergo a surgical operation, and if so when and of what nature? _____

13. Age: Years 49; months _____; days _____; single, married or widowed? _____

14. Full name of father of deceased Dr. John Hertzler

15. Birthplace of father (state or country) Penn

16. Full name of mother of deceased Hertzler

17. Birthplace of mother (state or country) _____

18. Place of interment Maple Hill Sec 1

19. Remarks: Transit Permit

Date of Report Jan 5th 1913 Reporter J. A. Kiser Post Office Madison Ala

Since the INDEX TO LANDS showed that John Hertzler Jr. entered into a mortgage agreement with Colmer D. Landon in 1910 regarding land near the cemetery parcel, it is likely that he was the son of a “senior” John Hertzler, as shown on the above death certificate. With a death certificate for a “junior” John Hertzler who died at age 49 in nearby Madison of tuberculosis in 1913, it is possible that either “senior” or “junior” was the one who