

In 1870 the census showed the same Thomas O. Burton and his wife Minerva, still living in the southeastern portion of the arsenal area. Judging from their ages, he appears to have a brother James T. Burton living in the household.