

64
 and on the West side of the Road leading from Ditto's Landing to Huntsville To have and to hold the above described Lots with tenements and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining unto the said Alfred Howell his heirs and assigns forever - In testimony whereof we the said commissioners have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seals the day and year above written signed sealed and delivered in the presence of
 J. Cook
 J. Hardie
 J. Timmons
 Daniel McLeod

MAD Co. AL
 Deed Book M
 Pages 63-64

State of Alabama, Personally appeared before me Thomas Brandon Madison County Clerk of the County Court of said County, J. Cook one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing Deed of conveyance who being first duly sworn deposes and saith that he heard J. Timmons and Daniel McLeod, whose names are likewise subscribed to said Deed of conveyance, say that by virtue of certain powers vested in them as commissioners for that purpose, they signed sealed and delivered the same to the within named Alfred Howell for the purposes therein expressed on the day of its date - And that he this deponent, subscribed his name as a witness thereto in the presence of the said J. Timmons, and Daniel McLeod, and in the presence of the other subscribing witnesses - Given under my hand and seal at Office in Huntsville this 15th day of November 1828. Tho^s Brandon Clerk

The foregoing Deed of Conveyance was delivered into this Office to be Recorded the 15th day of November 1828 and is duly done this 5th day of the same month and year
 Tho^s Brandon Clerk

The above deed shows Alfred Howell's purchase of town lots in Liberty (immediately west of Ditto's Landing) from pioneers Timmons and McLeod, who were nearby landowners to the Lacy family on pre-arsenal lands. The town of Liberty was apparently never populated, as it was a speculative venture that fizzled due to the growing importance of the town of Triana for shipping cotton from Huntsville. The prominence of Triana