1910 Jefferson County, Alabama, Census (Birmingham), showing Annie Hobbs as age 22, with occupation as School Teacher. This was the only “close fit” found in census records for 1910 for the name Annie Hobb(s).

The other inscribed tombstone in the Lacey Cemetery is for Zuleika Vaughn, as shown below. The inclusion of the word “MOTHER” reveals that she had children, so it indicates that she lived to adulthood and was probably married. With those clues, census records confirmed the deductions, as illustrated in subsequent photo insertions.
