

William Allison died before 1839, when his estate settlement papers listed his heirs, which included Charity (Allison) Cooper, along with her brothers John and David and others, including Williamson W. Cobb and his wife Catherine of the New Hope area:

Alabama
Madison County } Letitia C Thompson Judge of the County Court of County certify that I have on this day filed the account & vouchers of John Allison Administrator of William Allison dec'd and find it correct as above stated, viz that the said Administrator has rec'd & is chargeable with the sum of three thousand three hundred & four dollars & forty one cents and has expended & account for eight hundred & seventy two dollars & sixty six cents & that there is a balance due the said Estate of twenty four hundred & seventy seven dollars & seventy five cents and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Charity Cooper John Allison David Allison Williamson W Cobb and his wife Catherine & David Barker and his wife Mary Lane Francis Tennell & his wife Isabella and James W Tennell & his wife Martha are entitled to distribution of said estate it is therefore considered by the Court that the said Charity David Williamson W Cobb Isabella & James & his wife Martha recover severally equally from the said Administrator three hundred & forty six dollars & eighty two cents the amount of their respective shares of said Estate seven under my hand April 5th 1839
Letitia C Thompson
The State of Alabama

Orphan's Court of Madison County April Term 1839 Final Settlement of the Administrator of the Estate of William Allison deceased was this day made by John Allison Administrator & with the Judge of said Court is ordered to be recorded see minute Book No 3 434 Pursuant to said settlement and was duly recorded on the 21st day of July 1839
Feste
Richd B Purdom Clerk cc

MAD. Co. AL
Probate Record bk 8
p. 538
(P.L. of est. of Wm. Allison 1839)

The 1850 census included a listing for David Allison, living in District 35 of Madison County, which included the New Hope area in the southeast.