

Land records usually give a clue to the possible burials. When the landowner is known, sometimes the census records can indicate other likely interments, of elderly people in the census who lived near the landowner(s). The initial landowner of the location of the cemetery (SE/4 of S29-T5-R1W) is shown below: