

THE STATE OF ALABAMA.

Orphans Court of Madison County, May Term, 1848

Be it remembered, that on the 2d Monday in May 1848, before said court, came John Hardie executor of the will of John Hardie who was the guardian of William H. Timmons infant and prays that his account, as administrator & heretofore filed in the Office of the Clerk of said court for final settlement, may be taken, audited, examined and stated, and allowed: And on <sup>that said</sup> William H. Timmons by his guardian John Simpson coming into Court and <sup>waiving his right to publication as required by law</sup> ~~waiving his right to publication for forty days, by~~ <sup>is ordered by said court giving notice, that said account was filed</sup>

~~and could be presented for final settlement at the Term of said court,~~ and having audited and examined said account, together with the vouchers therewith filed; and having heard no exceptions nor objections to the same; said Court proceeds to state said accounts: Whereby it appears, that said is chargeable with the sum of five hundred dollars ~~100~~ Dollars, and is entitled to credits (as shown by vouchers numbered from one to inclusive) to the amount of three hundred and thirty four and 7/100 Dollars; leaving a balance against said guardian of one hundred and twenty five and 23/100 Dollars.

It is, therefore, ordered and decreed, that said account, thus stated, be allowed, and that the same be filed and recorded.

Edw C Bettyprossell

John Simpson was appointed guardian of William "Hardy" (Hardie) Timmons on November of 1848, per the document immediately below. The document that follows it shows that John Simpson's guardianship continued through 1860, when William Hardie Timmons reached legal adulthood.
