This 1920 census page shows the only entry found during the 1900 – 1930 census years for a Shelby Timmons. He was 15 in 1920, a son of William and Mary Timmons. However, there was another similar name found in the 1930 record – for a “Shelry” Timmons, which may well have been for “Shelby” and even the same person, since the ages are very close to what would be expected between the records. However, the 1952 notes indicated that the Shelby Timmons of interest was supposed to have been buried in
