was established in 1917 when members met at the home of Deacon John and Mother Emma Roberts, who owned a farm on Athens-Browns Ferry Road. The community raised $50 to purchase an acre of land from Dr. B.S. Kennedy.

The Little Zion School was organized by a few members of the community in 1918. At first, classes met in the church. The building was destroyed by fire in 1927 and classes were temporarily moved to a garage on the Malone Place until a new church and school could be built. The 1930 census showed that Peter and Dan Malone owned farms near Lucas Ferry Road and could possibly have hosted the school.
