Mr. JAMES P. KENNARD (46 T) died at the residence of his son-in-law, DR. M(ICHAEL) C(LAIBORNE) KENNARD (m. his SARAH KENNARD) in Livingston on 3 May 1873. He was born 27th November 1803 (Mrs. J. copied 1801) in Williamson Co. Tenn. and was therefore in his 70th year of his age. His parents being comparatively poor could not give him the advantages of a good primary education; and so, while quite young, he was placed in a mercantile house. He was among the first settlers in this county. Having moved to it in the fall of 1830. He was elected Circuit Court Clerk in 1838 and re-elected in 1842 and 1846, thus filling the office 12 years. This office was a very lucrative one; and he was thus enabled, by using strict economy and great industry to pay off a large old debt and accumulate a handsome property. He was a kind, obliging and efficient officer. He was conscientious, honorable, high-toned and Christian gentleman. His honesty was proverbial. As husband, brother, father and master, he was ever kind and provident. Joined the Presbyterian Church in this town in 1839; and a few months afterwards was elected Deacon.
