

MAJ. T. C. CLARK. CHANCELLOR CLARK was perhaps as widely known as any man in Alabama and was universally respected for his honesty and integrity. On the Bench, he was a stern Judge, yielding nothing and compelling the most implicit obedience. As a private gentleman, he was affable and sociable and it was hard to realize that CHANCELLOR CLARK on and off the Bench was the same man. He was a man of untiring application and observed the greatest system in his business and professional engagements. While living, he was honored and respected by the people of Ala. (Selma Times) HON. WM. M. MEREDITH, Secretary of Treasury under PRESIDENT TAYLOR died on 17th.
