Obituary:

JOSEPH MARTIN was a native of Union District, South Carolina. He was born November 26, 1802 and with his father and mother and other family connections emigrated to the west in 1821, then being about 19. His father, with whom he had always lived, settled near Yorkville, now is in Pickens County, where he has ever since resided. When the call for volunteers to protect Florida from horrors of savage warfare came, MR. MARTIN, then Major of battalion, volunteered as a private soldier and was elected Captain of Volunteers from Pickens County. . . . After his return, he was in 1836 elected to the Legislature, re-elected in 1837 and 1838 and on the very day of his death was chosen for third time a Representative. He died 7th of August, 1838 at 2 o'clock.

Died in this city on 28th, WILLIAM MORRISON, an old and worthy citizen.

Died in this vicinity on 3rd inst at her father's residence, HENRY S. SIMONTON, Esq. MISS CECELIA SIMONTON after a protracted illness.
