Another Revolutionary soldier gone!

Departed this life in Pickens County, Ala. on 23d of November last, MR. JAMES McCORRY, a native of Ireland. He was born on 15th of May, 1758 at Larga on the River Bann in the County of Antrim, Ireland. He sailed from Belfast in the year 1775 and landed at Baltimore 1st July same year. In 1776, he settled in Guilford County, North Carolina and the same year enlisted in continental service as it was then called. He was at the battle of Bradywine under GEN. WASHINGTON, at battle of Germantown under GEN. WASHINGTON and wintered at Valley Forge in Pa. He fought under GEN. GREENE at Guilford; was at battle of Eutaw Springs and at battle of Stono. He was with GEN. GATES at his defeat and with Morgan at battle of the Cowpens. For courage, services and good conduct, he was promoted to the rank of Ensign in GEN. WASHINGTON's Corps of Force (or Life Guards) and while belonging to the Corps was taken
