Died on board Steam Boat Fashion on the 11th instant on her passage from Mobile to New Orleans, DR. TRUEMAN WOODRUFF, of this city, late of Batavia, New York, aged about 50 years. DR. WOODRUFF had resided in this city about seven years for the benefit of his health. His intelligence, integrity and gentlemanly deportment caused him to be highly esteemed by all who knew him; and will cause his death to be no less generally regretted.

Obituary:

Died on the 23d, ult, at the residence in Montpelier, Baldwin County, Alabama, COLONEL LEE SLAUGHTER in the 48th year of his age. In early life, he devoted himself to attainment of military acquirements. Having received the appointment of Lieutenant in the regular army he emigrated to the South and was promoted to Adjutant under command of COLONEL KING of the 4th Regiment of United States Infantry; in all offices, he discharged his arduous duties with honor and dignity to himself and patriotic cause in which he was engaged "never shrinking as a soldier from any duty assigned him." After his retirement from the army, he acted in various civil and public capacities--sheriff of County and a representative in the legislature of his adopted state. And in all his social and business relations, he sustained the character of an honest, liberal and high minded gentleman. Amiable and candid as a friend- honest, upright and manly as a citizen- tender and devoted as a husband- kind and affectionate as a father- feeling and humane as a master- his death created a chasm in those relations which years cannot fill. Carried forward by his own exertions without the aid of any splendid patrimony, without influence and interest of powerful family connections, he acquired an ample and independent estate and established a character, which would do honor to any man in any country.

He left an affectionate wife, five children and a large circle of friends and acquaintances....E D M
