(From NASHVILLE UNION AND AMERICAN)--"THOMAS PINION of Montgomery County, said to be 118 years of age and a soldier of the first Revolution arrived here yesterday for the purpose of drawing his pension. He came in a wagon accompanied by two sons and two daughters, the youngest of his children being 75 years of age. MR. PINION, his advanced age being considered, exhibits remarkable traces of physical and mental vigor. He gets about with almost as much activity as either of his children and speaks of events of recent and ancient occurrence with a wonderful degree of animation and accuracy. He distinctly remembers the battle of Stony Point and is still able to give a vivid description of that engagement and other events of Revolutionary memory. MR. PINION has not drawn any portion of his pension money since the commencement of the late war, and says he thinks there is a 'right smart coming to him just about now'"
