Death of COL. ROBERT FEARN (s of ROBT--census). Died at his residence on Monte Sano near this city on Wed. evening the 12th inst. Although he had been for several years in poor health and recently quite ill, his death was sudden and unexpected. But sudden as the summons was, it found him ready and waiting. He was kind and affectionate in his family, hospitable to his friends and neighbors, charitable to his enemies. He rests beside his noble ancestors who left him a name and character pure and spotless and well he has preserved it. To his broken hearted wife and little orphan children, we feel authorized to tender the heart felt sympathies of our community.
