GEORGE T. JONES, in an open letter declares that MR. HAYS made a report just before the last election for representatives, amongst his friends at Ditto's Landing to the effect that "I, as a Justice of Peace, sat on a trial between my brother, JOSEPH JONES and himself and had given judgment in favor of my brother against him on a plain note of hand, merely because the note was executed on Sunday. This report I proved to be a base falsehood in all parts." JOSEPH JONES had agreed to sell JAMES YOUNG a steer, but testified he never got paid etc.
