Blount County: DAVID HENDRIX SR., PHILIP D. CLARK and JAMES HENDRIX, commissioners, to sell property of WILLIAM JONES deceased. ALVAH JONES, adm'r.

Departed this life on Monday the 4th instant at his residence four miles south of Bolivar, Jackson County, Ala. COL. GEORGE CAPERTON, for advanced in his 60th year, after an illness of ten days...left numerous family in easy circumstances. Was commander of a company in the last Creek and Seminole War in which at many places, Tallahatchee, Talladega and others, but particularly the latter, he distinguished himself as an officer and a good soldier. It was there at the commencement of the battle (the most doubtful crisis of a soldier's feelings) that is exhibited that deliberation and firmness which characterizes the American Soldier. Our army was moving slowly toward the enemy in battle array; COL. CARROLL INSPECTOR GENERAL riding in front and being more elevated
