Jackson, Mississippi, September 1. Died at his residence in Jefferson County on Sunday the 23rd of August MAJOR GENERAL THOMAS HINDS, native of the State of Mississippi, aged about 58 years. During the late war GENERAL HINDS commanded a regiment of Mississippi Cavalry and served under GENERAL JACKSON in the Creek War. In the fall of 1814 he returned home and in December of that year received orders to repair by forced marches to New Orleans. He assembled his soldiers consisting of four companies, one from each of the counties of Jefferson, Amite, Adams and Wilkinson at Woodville and marched 75 miles per day thence to New Orleans and arrived just in time to participate in the bold attack on the British encampment on the night of the 23rd of December. During the period intervening between that engagement and the glorious and decisive victory of the 8th of January he frequently led his troops up to the British lines and charged them with distinguished success and in the language of the order of the day "excited the astonishment of one army and the admiration of the other" GENERAL HINDS represented this state in the U.S. Congress three sessions...wife died many years since and he leaves an only child, a son.
