Within the past month, Alabama has lost two of her most prominent men--Early in the month JOHN A. ELMORE, an able and leading lawyer of Montgomery died after long suffering with cancer of the tongue. A few days since, HON. JOHN BRAGG, of Mobile, long a leading lawyer and Judge of Circuit and once a member of Congress, died at an advanced age. The Nashville American brings news today of HON. BALIE PEYTON near Gallatin, Tenn. a prominent politician and member of Congress.

We regret to learn that MITCHEL RICHARDSON, a brother of HON. WILLIAM RICHARDSON died in Nashville on Monday nite last of pulmonary consumption. His remains were taken to Athens, his native home for burial.

On Sunday last in this city, MRS. HUNT, the venerable mother of the MISSES HUNT aged 82 fell off her back porch and broke her arm and thigh.

MR. SELDON WATKINS, a native of Huntsville, who left here 28 years ago is in our city.

State of Alabama--Madison Co. Estate of NANCY A. DOUGLASS, deceased. JOHN A. DOUGLASS, administrator, presents petition representing that MRS. MARY W. ROBINSON, THOMAS H. DOUGLASS, trustee, JOHN A. DOUGLASS, all of whom reside in Madison Co. and MARTHA J. DOUGLASS, who resides in DeSoto Co. Miss.--own a certain tract of land.
