The Independent, 1878 (Continued from a previous volume.)

October 3, 1878

Married on the 9th, by the REV. WILLIAM HIGHTOWER, MR. G. B. FALKNER and MRS. RACHEL T. KEYES, all of Lawrence County (Moulton "Advertiser.")

Died in the Big Cove, 4th September 1878 HETTIE D. (30 Kentucky) wife of JAMES L. WEBSTER (35 Alabama) in the 59th year of her age. Pulaski, Tennessee papers please copy.

A dispatch was received by DR. FENNEL of Triana last Friday from Holly Springs, Mississippi. "Drs. G. M. FENNEL and J. W. FENNEL both dead." These two noble specimens of men had many relatives in this section. They stood at the post of danger. They did their duty.

MRS. AMY BOLDMAN, an aged and highly esteemed member of the Methodist Church of Huntsville, died at the residence of MR. B. F. STINE in Tuscumbia last Monday. The funeral was from the Methodist church yesterday. The deceased was the wife of the late H. H. BOLDMAN and mother of MRS. JAMES A. PICKARD.

MISS SOPHRONIA WHITE died five miles from this city Monday night of erysipelas and was interred in the City Cemetery yesterday.

The remains of MISS SARAH H. LEWIS, daughter of MRS. JOHN H. LEWIS of Huntsville, were brought from Houston, Texas, and interred in our City Cemetery Sunday.

It was found necessary to amputate the limb of MRS. CORINNE GOODMAN above the knee. DRS. SAUNDERS, ERSKINE, ROBINSON and LOWRY.

In Memoriam. MRS. AMY BOLDMAN was born in Lee County, Virginia, and died in Tuscumbia September 30, 1878. She was converted and joined the Methodist Church when quite young. She leaves four daughters. W. C. HEARN, her Pastor.
