HON. THOMAS H(ORD) HERNDON (21 in Alabama), Representative in Congress for the First Alabama District, died at his home in Mobile the 28th of March in the 55th year of his age. COL. HERNDON was born in that part of Greene County, now Hale, in 1828, graduated at the State University at Tuscaloosa, and after studying a course in law at Harvard began practice in Eutaw in 1849. In 1857, having removed to Mobile, he represented that county in the Legislature, but returning to Greene, he went from that County as Delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1861. He was Colonel of the 36th Alabama Regiment. He returned to Mobile in 1878, was elected to Congress, and when he died, was on the threshold of his third term.

Rep. March 29. It is with no ordinary sadness I chronicle the death of one of our most worthy young men, R. A. GOOCH, who a little over a month ago left here with wife and babe, for Hope, Arkansas (Hempstead County) where he died the 15th of meningitis. He leaves a widowed mother, brothers and sisters. He married the youngest daughter of your townsman, MR RICHARD JAMES.

Died, Thursday, March 29th, at the residence of MRS. JOSEPH C. BRADLEY, MARY ST. JOHN, infant daughter of W. E. and JENNIE B. STANAGE.

Died in Huntsville, March 29, 1883, MRS. ACHEAH L. LAKIN, wife of REV. A(RAD) S. LAKIN (Methodist) and mother-in-law of CAPT. JOHN W. RAINES...member of the Presbyterian Church...fond mother, devoted wife.
