We clip the notice of the death of a former Huntsvillian from a Maryland paper. MR. MULLONS erected the two story brick houses on Washington Street which still belong to his estate.

"WILLIAM C. MULLENS died at Rock Springs, Cecil County, Maryland Sunday night in his 65th year; born in Hopewell, Chester County; in 1856 he went to Philadelphia, and about two years before the war he went to Huntsville, Alabama and in 1868 he came to Rock Springs."

News was received in Huntsville yesterday of the death of MR. THOMAS JAMAR (33 in Virginia) at his home in Green Grove Monday night. MR. JAMAR was formerly a merchant and business man of this city and no man was estimated higher for his just and fair dealing. He was 75 years of age, and for the past few years has conducted a large farming interest in the southern portion of the county. His funeral and burial will take place this morning from his old home in Mullons Flat. He leaves a large family circle.

Sheet dated December 23, 1891 (probably merely failed to change date.)

Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the soul of MR. HENRY JACKSON (35 in North Carolina) PICKARD winged its flight... MR.
