September 27, 1822

Died in this county on Friday the 20th, COLONEL LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON, an old and respectable resident of this county (widow was PAULINE--children: JOHN, MARTHA, WM., CHERRY married RODAH H____, FANNY married JOHN DICKERSON; CHERRY dead in 1834). (In Volume 35, page 11, change that date on LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON to 1822. You show the paper just before this as 1822, and I am positive it is a typographical error, as in ORC 2, page 362 24 September 1822. LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON, late of this county, has died without will and the widow of said deceased has waived her right of administration on said estate and signified to the court her wish that WILLIAM PATTON should administer in her place. (Bond, $50,000, with HENRY COOK and RODAH HORTON, securities.)

Also...that tombstone of EZEKIEL MOORE and wife MARY JONES (its page 84 of the T/S volume, and I think is in some others too, was copied by either H or BOYCE while on a survey--and 1855 is wrong--it's 1852, for her administrator was appointed then and the PSL says she died April, 1852, when TS says May. The 1852 newspaper notes don't list either her death or that of WM. ROBINSON; I guess they weren't subscribers.)
